Entravision Communications Corporation Announces Partial Debt Repayment

2019-12-19

SANTA MONICA, Calif., Dec. 19, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- Entravision Communications Corporation (NYSE: EVC), a diversified global media and marketing technology company reaching Latino consumers, today announced its intention to make a prepayment on December 30, 2019 of $25 million of term loans under the company's senior secured term loan credit facility entered into on November 30, 2017. Entravision anticipates funding this prepayment by using cash on hand. Following the prepayment, approximately $218 million will remain outstanding under the company's term loan credit facility.

"We continue to proactively manage our capital structure and over the past several years have opportunistically reduced our total debt," said Walter F. Ulloa, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Entravision. "By maintaining a solid balance sheet we are well positioned to continue to execute on our strategic plan and return capital to our shareholders through our share repurchase program and dividend."
