Entravision to Host John H. Cox, California Candidate for Governor, on Community Forum "Infórmate, VotaYA" with Broadcasts on its TV Station and Noticias Ya Platform Serving the San Diego Market

2018-10-23

SANTA MONICA, Calif., Oct. 23, 2018 /PRNewswire/ --

WHAT: Entravision Communications Corporation (NYSE: EVC), a diversified global media and advertising technology company serving Latino consumers, will host a community forum "Infórmate, VotaYA" in San Diego, CA, on Tuesday, October 23rd at 6:00pm PST on its Univision San Diego affiliate. The forum will feature John H. Cox, Republican candidate in the 2018 gubernatorial election. The 30-minute broadcast will include questions from moderators, Claudia Rodríguez and Sergio Urquidi, along with reporters, and the community of San Diego. In the week leading up to the event the local community has been encouraged to posts questions for Mr. Cox. The event is being co-sponsored with The Latino Legislative Round Table and will include questions from its founder Luis Alvarado.

"It's exciting to have the opportunity to broadcast this San Diego community forum. We have a strong local news presence in the San Diego market and our ability to work with The Latino Legislative Round Table to make this event happen highlights our commitment to the local community and the election process. The live television broadcast and streaming on our Noticias Ya platform allows us to connect with our audience across traditional and digital media," said Luisa Collins, Entravision's Vice President of News, Social Affairs and Wellness.

The forum will be moderated by Claudia Rodríguez and Sergio Urquidi and will also include questions from Luis Alvarado. The topics that will be discussed include: poverty, homelessness, housing, immigration, and the USMCA Trade Agreement. Claudia Rodríguez began her career as a reporter and news anchor in Mexico. She has been a part of the Univision San Diego broadcast team since 1995 and is a proven news anchor, which is highlighted by her eight Emmy Awards. Sergio Urquidi is Univision San Diego's 6pm news anchor with accomplishments including an Emmy Award and Golden Mike Award. Before moving to San Diego in 2017, he was lead anchor for Univision Arizona Daily Newscast. Luis Alvardo is a veteran Latino political expert and frequently quoted on national news programs. Mr. Alvarado has served as deputy press secretary for the California Republican Party and in senior advisor roles to Meg Whitman for Governor, Mike Villines for Insurance Commissioner, and a number of State Senate Congressional races.

Lt. Governor Gavin Newson was also invited to participate in the forum, but declined the invitation due to a scheduling conflict.

WHEN: Tuesday, October 23, 2018, 6:00-6:30pm PST
