Entravision's Oswaldo Diaz to be Recognized by the National Association of Broadcasters of Mexico, A.C. at the 2018 National Voice Awards

2018-12-04

SANTA MONICA, Calif., Dec. 4, 2018 /PRNewswire/ --

WHAT: Entravision Communications Corporation (NYSE: EVC), a diversified global media and advertising technology company serving Latino consumers, is pleased to announce that Oswaldo Diaz will be recognized in Mexico City on Tuesday, December 4, at the 2018 National Voice Award ceremony, hosted by the National Association of Broadcasters of Mexico, A.C. This black-tie event will honor the best Latino broadcasting voices from across Mexico.

Mr. Diaz, the host of the nationally syndicated top afternoon radio program, El Show de Erazno y La Chokolata, and has been part of Entravision for 16 years. As one of the most recognized voices within the Hispanic radio industry, he began his career in Santa Maria at a Spanish Pop radio station, La Romantica, while also working at a Regional Mexican station, La Ley 103.1. It wasn't until he joined Entravision in 2002 that he was able to fully express his creative and humorous personality, which is exemplified in El Show de Erazno y La Chokolata.

El Show de Erazno y La Chokolata is a parody-based comedy program that keeps audiences entertained with bold humor. The 5-hour nationally syndicated show is filled with hilarious skits, jokes, and pranks brought on by trending topics and current events. The radio program features the voices of three very unique and different characters: Erazno, a modern-day Dennis the Menace; Chokolata, a diva and the real "boss" of the show, and El Doggy, the opinionated bachelor. Together, they create an unpredictable experience that hook audiences with laughs, surprises and great artist interviews. El Show de Erazno y La Chokolata is syndicated on over 82 stations throughout the United States, including 17 Entravision radio stations.

WHEN: Tuesday, December 4, 2018, 5:30pm CST

WHERE: St. Regis Hotel, Paseo de la Reforma 439, Mexico City, MX

QUOTE: "It's an honor to receive an award in the United States, but I'm extremely proud to receive this prestigious award from my home country. I'm grateful that I get to spread entertainment and comedic relief to our listeners every day and I am looking forward to this very special night in my radio broadcasting career," said Mr. Diaz.

"Over the years, Oswaldo has constructed the bridge between art and science in radio hosting while adapting to new platforms and creating magic with his ideas. On behalf of Entravision, we'd like to congratulate Oswaldo for receiving this well-deserved award," said Nestor Rocha, Vice President of Audio Programming, Entravision.
