

Genco Shipping & Trading Limited Shareholders Overwhelmingly Re-Elect All Genco Director Nominees at 2026 Annual Meeting

Results Reflect Strong Support for Genco Board of Directors and Ongoing Execution of Genco's Comprehensive Value Strategy

NEW YORK, June 18, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Genco Shipping & Trading Limited (NYSE:GNK) ("Genco" or the "Company"), the largest U.S. headquartered drybulk shipowner focused on the global transportation of commodities, today announced that, based on preliminary results, Genco shareholders have overwhelmingly voted to re-elect all six of Genco's director nominees — Paramita Das, Kathleen C. Haines, Basil G. Mavroleon, Karin Y. Orsel, Arthur L. Regan and John C. Wobensmith.

Based on the preliminary results provided by Genco's proxy solicitor, on average nearly 90% of shares other than those held by Diana Shipping Inc. ("Diana") were voted FOR each of the Company's directors. Genco shareholders also supported the Board's other recommendations — including approval of Genco's equity incentive plan and ratification of its shareholder rights agreement — and voted against Diana's proposals.

Genco issued the following statement:

We thank our shareholders for their resounding support. We believe the results of today's meeting reflect their confidence in our Board of Directors and the strong returns we are delivering through our Comprehensive Value Strategy.

This is an exciting and important time for Genco. The actions we have taken to grow our premium earning assets, reduce debt, lower breakeven levels and increase our earnings and dividend capacity are paying off.

In that light — and in furtherance of its fiduciary duties — our Board is carefully reviewing the revised non-binding proposal received from Diana on June 17, 2026, in consultation with its financial and legal advisors.

Our Board is committed to maximizing shareholder value and will continue taking actions that it believes are in the best interests of all Genco shareholders.

The results announced today are preliminary until final results are tabulated and certified by the independent Inspector of Elections. Genco will report final voting results on a Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Jefferies LLC is acting as financial advisor to Genco and Herbert Smith Freehills Kramer (US) LLP and Sidley Austin LLP are serving as legal counsel to Genco. Morgan Stanley & Co. LLC is acting as special advisor to the Board of Directors.

Forward-Looking Statements

This communication contains statements that may constitute forward-looking statements. These statements include, but are not limited to: statements related to the Company's views and expectations regarding Diana Shipping Inc.'s unsolicited tender offer; any statements relating to the plans, strategies and objectives of management or the Company's Board for future operations and activities; any statements concerning the expected development, performance, market share or competitive performance relating to products or services; any statements regarding current or future macroeconomic trends or events and the impact of those trends and events on the Company and its financial performance; and any statements of assumptions underlying any of the foregoing. Forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historic or current facts and often use words such as "anticipate," "budget," "estimate," "expect," "project," "intend," "plan," "believe," and other words and terms of similar meaning in connection with a discussion of potential future events, circumstances or future operating or financial performance. These forward-looking statements are based on our management's current expectations and observations. Included among the factors that, in our view, could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward looking statements contained in this release are the following: (i) the Company's plans and objectives for future operations; (ii) that any transaction based on Diana's non-binding indicative proposal or otherwise may not be consummated at all; (iii) the ability of Genco and its shareholders to recognize the anticipated benefits of any such transaction; (iv) the exercise of the discretion of our Board regarding the declaration of dividends, including without limitation the amount that our Board determines to set aside for reserves under our dividend policy; and (v) other factors listed from time to time in our filings with the SEC, including, without limitation, our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025 and subsequent reports on Form 8-K and Form 10-Q. Our ability to pay dividends in any period will depend upon various factors, including the limitations under any credit agreements to which we may be a party, applicable provisions of Marshall Islands law and the final determination by the Board of Directors each quarter after its review of our financial performance, market developments, and the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. The timing and amount of dividends, if any, could also be affected by factors affecting cash flows, results of operations, required capital expenditures, or reserves. As a result, the amount of dividends actually paid may vary. In addition, the forward-looking statements included in this communication represent the Company's views as of the date of this communication and these views could change. However, while the Company may elect to update these forward-looking statements at some point, the Company specifically disclaims any obligation to do so, other than as required by federal securities laws. These forward-looking statements should not be relied upon as representing the Company's views as of any date subsequent to the date of this communication.
