

Genco Shipping & Trading Limited Comments on Extension of $24.80 Per Share Tender Offer by Diana Shipping

Diana Still Has Not Updated Its Tender Offer Materials to Align Terms with Indicative, Non-Binding Proposal

NEW YORK, July 13, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Genco Shipping & Trading Limited (NYSE:GNK) ("Genco" or the "Company"), the largest U.S. headquartered drybulk shipowner focused on the global transportation of commodities, today issued the following statement regarding the extension by Diana Shipping Inc. ("Diana") of its inadequate tender offer to acquire all outstanding common shares of Genco not already owned by Diana for $24.80 per share in cash:

Diana has once again extended its inadequate tender offer for $24.80 per share in cash. Our Board of Directors previously reviewed and unanimously rejected this offer, determining that it continued to meaningfully undervalue the Company and its assets, remained well below Genco's net asset value (NAV) and did not include any control premium.

Do not be misled into tendering into Diana's tender offer, which is at a lower price than a separate indicative, non-binding proposal it has made to the Genco Board. Diana STILL has not updated its tender offer materials to align the tender offer's terms with the terms of its indicative, non-binding proposal to the Genco Board.

Our Board has recommended that shareholders protect their investment and upside potential, including the ability to benefit from Genco's Comprehensive Value Strategy and compelling dividends in a strong drybulk market, by not tendering their shares into Diana's inadequate tender offer. Assuming the forward freight rate curve for the balance of the year, our dividend formula would produce a total dividend of $2.50 per share in 2026.¹ Shareholders who have tendered their shares retain the right to withdraw them at any time prior to the expiration of the tender offer.

In accordance with its fiduciary duties, Genco's Board is continuing to review Diana's separate indicative, non-binding proposal. The Board is committed to maximizing shareholder value and will continue taking actions that it believes are in the best interests of all Genco shareholders.

¹ 2026 projections are based on our fixtures to date and assumes the forward freight agreement (FFA) curve for the balance of the year. For further details of the calculation of operating cash flow and our assumptions and qualifications, including estimated expenses and utilization rates, please see p. 39 of our Q1 2026 earnings presentation at <https://investors.gencoshipping.com/overview/default.aspx>.

Forward-Looking Statements

This communication contains statements that may constitute forward-looking statements. These statements include, but are not limited to: statements related to the Company's views and expectations regarding Diana Shipping Inc.'s unsolicited tender offer; any statements relating to the plans, strategies and objectives of management or the Company's Board for future operations and activities; any statements concerning the expected development, performance, market share or competitive performance relating to products or services; any statements regarding current or future macroeconomic trends or events and the impact of those trends and events on the Company and its financial performance; and any statements of assumptions underlying any of the foregoing. Forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historic or current facts and often use words such as "anticipate," "budget," "estimate," "expect," "project," "intend," "plan," "believe," and other words and terms of similar meaning in connection with a discussion of potential future events, circumstances or future operating or financial performance. These forward-looking statements are based on our management's current expectations and observations. Included among the factors that, in our view, could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward looking statements contained in this release are the following: (i) the Company's plans and objectives for future operations; (ii) that any transaction based on Diana's non-binding indicative proposal or otherwise may not be consummated at all; (iii) the ability of Genco and its shareholders to recognize the anticipated benefits of any such transaction; (iv) the exercise of the discretion of our Board regarding the declaration of dividends, including without limitation the amount that our Board determines to set aside for reserves under our dividend policy; and (v) other factors listed from time to time in our filings with the SEC, including, without limitation, our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025 and subsequent reports on Form 8-K and Form 10-Q. Our ability to pay dividends in any period will depend upon various factors, including the limitations under any credit agreements to which we may be a party, applicable provisions of Marshall Islands law and the final determination by the Board of Directors each quarter after its review of our financial performance, market developments, and the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. The timing and amount of dividends, if any, could also be affected by factors affecting cash flows, results of operations, required capital expenditures, or reserves. As a result, the amount of dividends actually paid may vary. In addition, the forward-looking statements included in this communication represent the Company's views as of the date of this communication and these views could change. However, while the Company may elect to update these forward-looking statements at some point, the Company specifically disclaims any obligation to do so, other than as required by federal securities laws. These forward-looking statements should not be relied upon as representing the Company's views as of any date subsequent to the date of this communication.
