The remarketing is expected to settle on May 15, 2020, subject to customary closing conditions.

Prior to the remarketing, the Convertible Preferred Stock (i) did not bear any dividends; (ii) was convertible only upon the occurrence of certain fundamental change events, and, subject to adjustment, the conversion rate was 6.2001 shares of the Company's common stock per share, which was equivalent to a conversion price of approximately $161.29 per share of the Company's common stock; and (iii) was redeemable from and after June 22, 2020, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the liquidation preference thereof, plus any accumulated and unpaid dividends.

Following the settlement of the remarketing, holders of the Convertible Preferred Stock will be entitled to receive when, as and if declared by the Company's board of directors cumulative dividends, solely in cash, quarterly in arrears at a fixed rate equal to (i) 5.000% per annum of the $1,000 per share liquidation preference (equivalent to $50.00 per annum per share) for dividend periods from, and including, May 15, 2020 to, but excluding, May 15, 2023, and (ii) 10.000% per annum of the $1,000 per share liquidation preference (equivalent to $100.00 per annum per share) for dividend periods from, and including, May 15, 2023. The other terms of the Convertible Preferred Stock will not change in connection with the remarketing.

The proceeds of the remarketing of the Convertible Preferred Stock will be $750 million, before expenses and a remarketing fee payable to the remarketing agents, and will provide to the holders of the Corporate Units the consideration necessary to satisfy their obligations under the related purchase contracts. The purchase contracts obligate the holders of Corporate Units to purchase shares of the Company's common stock on May 15, 2020 for $750 million in the aggregate, and the Convertible Preferred Stock is pledged to secure the purchase contract obligations of such holders.
