Entravision Communications Corporation Announces Partial Debt Repayment

2018-12-18

SANTA MONICA, Calif., Dec. 18, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Entravision Communications Corporation (NYSE: EVC), a diversified global media and advertising technology company serving Latino consumers, today announced its intention to make a prepayment on December 31, 2018 of $50 million of term loans under the company's senior secured term loan credit facility entered into on November 30, 2017. Entravision anticipates funding this prepayment by using cash on hand. Following the prepayment, approximately $246 million will remain outstanding under the company's term loan credit facility.

"We continue to proactively manage our capital structure and over the past several years have opportunistically reduced our total debt," said Walter F. Ulloa, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Entravision. "With a solid balance sheet and sound financial performance, we remain well positioned to continue to execute on our strategic plan."
