LAS VEGAS, Nov. 10, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Entravision Communications Corporation (NYSE: EVC), a diversified media company serving Latino audiences and communities, today announced that it will host its fourth annual "Noche de Locura con Erazno y La Chokolata" on Monday, November 13, 2017. The event will boast a musical lineup consisting of today's hottest regional Mexican artists, including Banda el Recodo, Calibre 50, Espinoza Paz, Alfredo Olivas, El Fantasma, Banda Carnaval, Alta Consigna and Los de la Noria.

The stars behind Entravision's El Show de Erazno y La Chokolata, will host the concert and broadcast their radio show live from the Orleans Arena. Livestream behind the scenes coverage kicks off at 5:00 pm PT via Elerazno.com and Erazno's Facebook's page (facebook.com/EraznoYLaChokolata). Last year, more than 600,000 people enjoyed this concert and celebration live via social media and the company's websites. Additionally, El Show de Erazno y La Chokolata will be broadcasting live via their syndicated network from the MGMTuesday November 14th and Wednesday November 15th with exclusive interviews with Latin Grammy nominated artists.

"Entravision is excited to host its fourth annual 'Noche de Locura con Erazno y La Chokolata' which allows us to connect directly with this exclusive live audience and fans across our media channels," said Jeffery Liberman, President and Chief Operating Officer of Entravision. "This signature event provides fans with a unique and special opportunity to spend their night with Erazno, and some of the most talented artists in the regional Mexican genre. We are pleased to share this event with our extremely loyal fan base in Las Vegas and across the country via our live broadcast."

Entravision's 4th Annual Noche de Locura is the fastest growing concert in Las Vegas with the hottest Mexican regional bands. The invite-only exclusive event will take place at the Orleans Arena in Las Vegas, Nevada, and is to honor Las Vegas declaring November 23rd as the official Erazno y La Chokolata Day, and to celebrate the show's 14th anniversary. The night is expected to bring in over 10,000 attendees as well as some of the biggest artists and names in the entertainment industry. Noche de Locura sponsors include: Dodge, Ram, Curacao, IHOP and Boost.

El Show de Erazno y La Chokolata is a parody based comedy program that keeps audiences entertained with bold humor. The 5-hour show is filled with hilarious skits, jokes, and pranks brought on by trending topics and current events. Erazno is joined by Choko, the real "boss" of the show, and co-hosts Doggy, El Garbanzo and El Diablito. Together, they create a fantastic experience that hooks audiences with laughs, surprises and great performances. El Show de Erazno y La Chokolata is syndicated throughout the United States, including on 18 Entravision radio stations and 84 stations in total. El Show de Erazno y La Chokolata garners over 2.5 million listeners weekly, and airs in markets covering 75% of the U.S, Latino 12+ population. (source: Nielsen Audio Nationwide, Spring 2017)
