HF Sinclair Appoints Shawn J. Carsten as Chief Financial Officer

2026-11-19

Experienced energy finance executive to join HF Sinclair effective Jan. 1, 2027

DALLAS--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- HF Sinclair Corporation (NYSE and NYSE Texas, Inc.: DINO) ("HF Sinclair" or the "Company") today announced the appointment of Shawn J. Carsten as executive vice president and chief financial officer, effective Jan. 1, 2027. Carsten currently serves as vice president of finance and chief financial officer of Golden Pass LNG, where he leads the company's finance organization, with responsibility for financial planning and performance, accounting, business controls, tax, risk management and treasury. He joined Golden Pass in 2024.

"Shawn is a highly accomplished finance leader with deep experience across the energy value chain," said Steve Ledbetter, incoming chief executive officer and president of HF Sinclair. "He brings strong financial and operational expertise and a proven track record of building high-performing organizations. I look forward to working closely with Shawn as we maintain capital discipline, execute our strategy and create long-term value for our shareholders."

"I am excited to join HF Sinclair and work alongside a talented team with a strong portfolio of high-quality businesses," said Carsten. "I look forward to working with the team to drive performance, maintain financial discipline and strategically allocate capital. HF Sinclair has a strong foundation, and I see significant opportunity to build on it and create sustainable long-term value for shareholders."

About Shawn J. Carsten

Carsten brings extensive financial and business leadership experience across the energy value chain. Before joining Golden Pass LNG, Carsten held senior finance and business leadership roles during a more than 30-year career with Shell, including serving as chief financial officer of Shell Midstream Partners. In that role, he led financial reporting, regulatory filings, business and financial controls and financial strategy. Earlier in his Shell career, Carsten held leadership roles spanning refining, chemicals, manufacturing, supply and distribution, global logistics and digital transformation in the U.S. and internationally.

Carsten holds a Bachelor of Science in finance from the University of Colorado Boulder and a Master of Business Administration from Northwestern University.
