Varonis Recognized on CRN's 2019 Security 100 List

2/25/2019

NEW YORK, Feb. 25, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Varonis Systems, Inc. (NASDAQ: VRNS), a pioneer in data security and analytics, announced that it has been named to the annual Security 100 list in the Identity Management and Data Protection category by CRN®, a brand of The Channel Company. This list recognizes the coolest security vendors in five categories: Endpoint Security; Identity Management and Data Protection; Network Security; SIEM, Risk and Threat Intelligence; and Web, Email and Application Security. The companies on CRN's Security 100 list demonstrated innovation and creativity in product development as well as a strong commitment to delivering those offerings through a vibrant channel of solution providers.

In addition to recognizing security technology vendors for outstanding products and services, the Security 100 list serves as a respected guide for solution providers trying to navigate the IT security market. The list helps prospective channel partners to identify the vendors that can best help them improve or expand their security offerings.

Supported by a robust global channel partner network, Varonis specializes in software for data protection, threat detection and response and helping with compliance with regulations like the GDPR and the upcoming California Consumer Privacy Act. Varonis protects enterprise data by analyzing data activity, perimeter telemetry and user behavior; prevents disaster by locking down sensitive data; and efficiently sustains a secure state with automation. "CRN's 2019 Security 100 list identifies top technology companies that are meeting high levels of demand with the most innovative security solutions on the market, enabling businesses to grow uninterrupted," said Bob Skelley, CEO of The Channel Company. "The core elements of today's businesses all depend upon secure, reliable cybersecurity solutions."

"For more than a decade, we've focused on developing the Varonis Data Security Platform by enriching it with new functionality to meet today's evolving security threats, and we're honored to be selected among an increasingly growing and competitive field for CRN's 2019 Security 100," said Mark Wilcox, Vice President of Channel Operations and Strategic Accounts at Varonis. "In lockstep with our worldwide channel partner network, we're helping companies protect their most critical data from hostile insiders and external attackers, supercharge their security investigations to resolve issues faster, and achieve compliance with regulations."

The Security 100 list will be featured in the February 2019 issue of CRN and online at www.crn.com/security100.

About Varonis

Varonis is a pioneer in data security and analytics, fighting a different battle than conventional cybersecurity companies. Varonis focuses on protecting enterprise data on premises and in the cloud: sensitive files and emails; confidential customer, patient and employee data; financial records; strategic and product plans; and other intellectual property. The Varonis Data Security Platform detects insider threats and cyberattacks by analyzing data, account activity, perimeter telemetry, and user behavior; prevents and limits disaster by discovering, classifying and locking down sensitive, regulated and stale data; and efficiently sustains a secure state with automation. With a focus on data security, Varonis serves a variety of use cases including data protection, threat detection and response, and compliance. Varonis started operations in 2005 and, as of December 31, 2018, had approximately 6,600 customers worldwide — comprised of industry leaders in many sectors including technology, consumer, retail, financial services, healthcare, manufacturing, energy, media, and education.
