Ryder Executive to Present at Automotive Leaders Summit

3/31/2016

MIAMI--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Ryder System, Inc. (NYSE:R), a leader in commercial fleet management, dedicated transportation, and supply chain solutions, today announced that Ryder executive, David Walby, Vice President of Business Development for Automotive, Aerospace, and Industrial, will present at the Automotive Leaders Summit at the Mandarin Oriental in Las Vegas on April 7, 2016.

Mr. Walby's presentation, Development of World Class Logistics, will delve into the numerous challenges facing automotive supply chains and how to overcome them in order to achieve a "world class" logistics operation.

Ryder has also been named a finalist for an award in the "Third Party Logistics Company" category, which will be presented as part of the Automotive Global Awards at the close of the Summit. The award will go to the 3PL or 4PL that has demonstrated an outstanding level of achievement in the provision of cost-effective and innovative supply chain solutions.

Ryder, which has served the automotive industry for over 40 years, is the largest automotive lead logistics provider supporting operations of the world's leading OEMs and their suppliers across North America.
