TSR is an innovative coalition that brings together global private sector companies, across industries, to collaborate on improving road safety and reducing deaths and injuries from road traffic crashes globally. TSR was founded by AB InBev, AIG, and AT&T, and along with Ryder, is comprised of other global private sector companies committed to road safety, including Chevron, Ericsson, Facebook, IBM, iHeartMedia, Octo Telematics, PepsiCo, Republic Services, UPS, and Walmart.

During the week of World Day for Safety and Health at Work, Ryder and TSR's other member companies will be encouraging employees to be safe road users by following a few simple practices:

- Don't text and drive
- Buckle your seat belt
- Respect speed limits
- Don't drink and drive
- Perform vehicle inspections

Customers, partners, and members of the general public are also invited to join Ryder employees in taking TSR's pledge to be safe road users by visiting www.togetherforsaferroads.org.
