Ryder Executives to Present at the Supply Chain Conference of Automotive Logistics

5/17/2016

MIAMI--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Ryder System, Inc. (NYSE:R), a leader in commercial fleet management, dedicated transportation, and supply chain solutions, today announced that Ryder will be the Premier Sponsor of the Supply Chain Conference of Automotive Logistics in the Marriott Marquis in Atlanta, Ga., from May 17-19. Additionally, Ryder executives Darcee Scavone, Brandon Brissette, and Juan Calvillo will each present at conference sessions held on Thursday, May 19.

Ms. Scavone, Ryder's Vice President and General Manager of Automotive, Aerospace & Industrial Operations, will participate in a panel titled "Question Time," which will discuss the major themes to emerge from the conference and identify future actions for the development of the North American Automotive Supply Chain industry. Mr. Brissette, Ryder's Director of Business Development, will lead a think tank focused on the topic of aftermarket logistics, where attendees will have the opportunity to speak directly with key industry figures through a practical, interactive discussion that encourages idea sharing and the development of real business strategies. Mr. Calvillo, Ryder Mexico's Supply Chain Excellence Director, will present at the conference's "Linking North America" session, where he will discuss the importance of supply chains now involving Canada and Mexico, in addition to the Midwestern U.S.

Ryder, which has served the automotive industry for over 40 years, is the largest automotive lead logistics provider supporting operations of the world's leading OEMs and their suppliers across North America.
