Fortune Magazine Names Ryder among World's Most Admired Companies for Sixth Year in a Row

1/30/2018

MIAMI--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Ryder System, Inc. (NYSE: R), a leader in commercial fleet management, dedicated transportation, and supply chain solutions, today announced that it has been named by FORTUNE magazine as one of the World's Most Admired Companies. This is the sixth consecutive year that Ryder has made the list, ranking as one of the top five companies within the Trucking, Transportation, and Logistics industry.

"It is a great honor for Ryder to again be recognized among the most admired companies in the world by one of the most prestigious business magazines," said Robert Sanchez, Ryder Chairman and CEO. "This distinction continues to set Ryder apart as a trusted leader in transportation and supply chain solutions and further solidifies the tremendous value we deliver to our customers."

FORTUNE's World's Most Admired Companies list, a ranking of the world's most respected and reputable companies, was based on a survey of 3,900 executives, analysts, directors, and experts. Each company is evaluated based on a variety of attributes, including innovation, people management, quality of products/services, and social responsibility.

Ryder is a $6.8 billion commercial fleet management, dedicated transportation, and supply chain solutions company, with operations in the U.S., Canada, Mexico, the U.K., and parts of Asia. The Company, founded in 1933, operates behind the scenes, managing critical transportation and logistics functions for more than 50,000 customers, many of which make the products that consumers use every day. Ryder employs more than 34,500 people, manages a fleet of 234,100 commercial vehicles, and operates more than 44 million square feet of warehouse space.
