

Vonage Extends Free Calling to Nepal Through May 11, 2015

May 5, 2015

HOLMDEL, N.J., May 5, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Vonage today announced that it will continue to waive per-minute calling charges for customers in the U.S. and Canada calling Nepal until 11:59 p.m. ET on May 11, 2015.

In addition, anyone using the Vonage Mobile® App is eligible for free calls to Nepal. The App is available for iPhone® and Android™ smartphones, and consumers do not need to be Vonage home service subscribers to use the App.

*Only per-minute charges for calls terminating to landline or mobile numbers in Nepal will be waived through 11:59 p.m. on May 11, 2015. All other fees including taxes, surcharges and monthly recurring charges (MRCs), etc. will continue to apply.

About Vonage

Vonage (NYSE: VG) is a leading provider of cloud communications services for consumers and businesses. Vonage provides a robust suite of feature-rich residential and business communication solutions that offer flexibility, portability and ease-of-use, designed to meet the needs of a wide range of customers from individuals to businesses, small and large.

Vonage residential service (www.vonage.com) for individuals and families, and Vonage Business Solutions service (www.vonagebusiness.com) for small and medium businesses, run over the top of a customer's existing broadband connection. Through Telesphere (www.telesphere.com) and SimpleSignal (www.simplesignal.com), Vonage offers service with carrier-grade performance over a private national MPLS broadband network, which is especially well suited to address the needs of larger businesses with multiple offices that require higher service level agreements (SLAs).

Vonage Holdings Corp. is headquartered in Holmdel, New Jersey. Vonage® is a registered trademark of Vonage Marketing LLC, owned by Vonage America Inc.
