

Vonage Offers Free Calling to Taiwan

February 6, 2016

HOLMDEL, N.J., Feb. 6, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- Vonage announced that it will waive per-minute calling charges to Taiwan as of 9 a.m. ET today, February 6, 2016 until 11:59 p.m. ET February 12, 2016*. All Vonage residential service customers in the U.S. and Canada calling Taiwan are eligible.

In addition, anyone using the Vonage Mobile® App is eligible for free calls to Taiwan during the same time period. The App is available for iPhone® and Android™ smartphones, and consumers do not need to be Vonage residential service subscribers to use the App.

"In the wake of the disaster in Taiwan, we want to do what we can to help our customers and their families stay in touch," said Joe Redling, Vonage Chief Operating Officer. "Our thoughts are with all those impacted by the earthquake, and we hope this makes it easier for our customers to connect with their loved ones during this difficult time."

* Only per-minute charges for calls terminating to landline or mobile numbers in Taiwan will be waived from 9 a.m. ET February 6, 2016 until 11:59 p.m. ET February 12, 2016. All other fees including taxes, surcharges and monthly recurring charges (MRCs), etc. will continue to apply.

Mobile carrier data rates may apply to calls made using the Vonage Mobile app.

If calling fees are charged, customers will be credited in a future billing statement.
