LAS VEGAS, September 8, 2023 – AMH (NYSE: AMH), a leading owner, operator and developer of single-family rental homes, has been awarded on Newsweek's inaugural list of the World's Most Trustworthy Companies 2023.

The World's Most Trustworthy Companies 2023 were identified in an independent survey based on a vast sample of more than 70,000 companies in 23 industries from 21 countries, evaluated across three main public pillars of trust: Customer Trust, Investor Trust, and Employee Trust.

“AMH is proud to be named one of the most trustworthy companies globally, as we continue to earn the trust of those who rely on us, including our employees, customers, shareholders and communities,” said David Singelyn, Chief Executive Officer and Co-Founder of AMH. “This recognition is a testament to our team's commitment to holding ourselves accountable and delivering consistent value to our stakeholders as a leading employer, housing provider, and corporate citizen.”

This prestigious award is presented by Newsweek and Statista Inc., the world-leading statistics portal and industry ranking provider. In 269,000 evaluations, participants rated companies they knew in terms of all three touchpoints of trust. All stock-listed companies headquartered in one of the target countries with a revenue of over 500 million USD were considered in the study.
