Dan brings more than 25 years of global operations leadership experience to Tennant Company. He joins us from The Vollrath Company, where he served as the Senior Vice President of Operations. Prior to his time at The Vollrath Company, Dan spent ten years at Rexnord Industries in different roles with increasing responsibilities, and when he left he was VP of Engineering, Innovation and Rexnord Business System. Dan brings to Tennant broad enterprise leadership and deep functional experience across all aspects of manufacturing operations and supply chain management.

"We are excited to have Dan Glusick join our senior management team leading our global manufacturing and supply chain operations," said Dave Huml, Chief Operating Officer of Tennant Company. "Throughout Dan's career, he has proven to be highly effective leading teams cross-functionally to solve complex business problems, driving transformation, and instilling operational rigor to predictably deliver results. I look forward to Dan's active leadership of our global operations team as we continue to invest to improve our capabilities, launch innovative new products, leverage our global footprint, and deliver a superior customer experience."

Mr. Glusick will report directly to Dave Huml, Chief Operating Officer, and will be located at Tennant Company's global headquarters in Eden Prairie, MN.
