Note 1 - Organization and Business Operations

Franklin BSP Realty Trust, Inc., (the "Company") is a Maryland corporation that operates as a real estate finance company. The Company has elected to be taxed as a real estate investment trust (a "REIT") for U.S. federal income tax purposes since 2013. The Company's operations are organized into two business units: (i) Commercial Real Estate Financing, and (ii) Agency Business.

Commercial Real Estate Financing

The Commercial Real Estate Financing unit primarily focuses on originating, acquiring and asset managing commercial real estate debt investments, including first mortgage loans, subordinated mortgage loans, mezzanine loans and participations in such loans. Secondly, this unit also invests in and asset manages real estate securities, with a historical focus on commercial mortgage-backed securities ("CMBS"), commercial real estate collateralized loan obligation bonds and single asset single borrower bonds (collectively "CMBS bonds"), collateralized debt obligations ("CDOs") and other securities. Through this unit the Company also originates conduit loans which the Company intends to sell through its taxable REIT subsidiary ("TRS") into CMBS securitization transactions, and owns real estate that was either acquired by the Company through foreclosure, deed-in-lieu of foreclosure or that was purchased for investment.

Agency Business

On July 1, 2025, through a wholly owned subsidiary, we acquired NewPoint Holdings JV LLC, which now comprises our Agency Business unit. Through this unit, we originate, sell and service a range of multifamily finance products under programs offered by government-sponsored enterprises ("GSEs"), such as the Federal National Mortgage Association ("Fannie Mae") and Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation ("Freddie Mac") and by government agencies ("Agencies"), such as the Government National Mortgage Association ("Ginnie Mae") and the Federal Housing Administration, a division of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (together with Ginnie Mae, "HUD"). We retain the servicing rights and asset management responsibilities on substantially all loans we originate and sell under the GSE and HUD programs. We are an approved Fannie Mae Delegated Underwriting and Servicing ("DUS") lender, a Freddie Mac Program Plus Seller/Servicer, a Multifamily Accelerated Processing ("MAP") and Section 232 LEAN lender for HUD and a Ginnie Mae issuer. Additionally, the Company services external portfolios of commercial real estate financing products.

Structure

The Company believes that it has qualified as a REIT and intends to continue to meet the requirements for qualification and taxation as a REIT. As of September 30, 2025, substantially all of the Company's business is conducted through FBRT OP LLC (the "OP"), a Delaware limited liability company. As of September 30, 2025, the Company is the managing member of the OP and directly or indirectly holds 91% of the common units of membership interest in the OP. In addition, the Company, through subsidiaries which are treated as taxable REIT subsidiaries ("TRS"), is indirectly subject to U.S. federal, state and local income taxes.

The Company is externally-managed by Benefit Street Partners L.L.C. (the "Advisor") pursuant to an advisory agreement, as amended on August 18, 2021 (the "Advisory Agreement"). Established in 2008, the Advisor's credit platform manages funds for institutions and high-net-worth investors across various credit funds and complementary strategies including high yield, levered loans, private/opportunistic debt, liquid credit, structured credit and commercial real estate debt. These strategies complement each other as they all leverage the sourcing, analytical, compliance, and operational capabilities that encompass the platform. The Advisor manages the Company's affairs on a day-to-day basis. The Advisor receives compensation fees and reimbursements for services related to the investment and management of the Company's assets and the operations of the Company. The Advisor is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Franklin Resources, Inc., which together with its various subsidiaries operates as "Franklin Templeton."

The Company's unaudited consolidated financial statements and related footnotes have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") for interim financial statements and pursuant to the requirements for reporting on Form 10-Q and Regulation S-X, as appropriate.

These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto as of, and for the year ended December 31, 2024, which are included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") on February 26, 2025, as certain disclosures that would substantially duplicate those contained in the audited consolidated financial statements have not been included in this report.

Reclassifications

Certain prior year balances have been reclassified in order to conform to the current period presentation.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2024, $118.7 million of Borrowings on repurchase agreements - real estate securities and $51.5 million of Repayments of repurchase agreements - real estate securities were combined to be presented as a net result in Net borrowings (paydowns) on repurchase agreements - real estate securities, less than 90 days maturity in the consolidated statements of cash flows.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2025, $0.9 million of Intangible lease liability, held for sale was reclassified to Other Liabilities on the consolidated balance sheets. For the year ended December 31, 2024, $1.3 million of Intangible lease liability, held for sale was reclassified to Other Liabilities on the consolidated balance sheets.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2025, $9.0 million of Accrued Expenses and Accounts Payable was reclassified to Other Liabilities on the consolidated balance sheets. For the year ended December 31, 2024, $10.4 million of Accrued Expenses and Accounts Payable was reclassified to Other Liabilities on the consolidated balance sheets.

For the three months ended September 30, 2025 and 2024, $0.3 million and $6.2 million, respectively, was reclassified from Realized gain/(loss) on sale of commercial mortgage loans, held for sale, measured at fair value to Gain/(loss) on sales, including fee-based services, net on the consolidated statements of operations.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2025 and 2024, $5.3 million and $13.1 million, respectively, was reclassified from Realized gain/(loss) on sale of commercial mortgage loans, held for sale, measured at fair value to Gain/(loss) on sales, including fee-based services, net on the consolidated statements of operations.

For the three months ended September 30, 2025 and 2024, Unrealized gain/(loss) on derivatives and Realized gain/(loss) on derivatives were combined and reclassified to Gain/(loss) on derivatives, resulting in net $(0.2) million and $(1.3) million, respectively, being reclassified on the consolidated statements of operations.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2025 and 2024, Unrealized gain/(loss) on derivatives and Realized gain/(loss) on derivatives were combined and reclassified to Gain/(loss) on derivatives, resulting in net $(0.3) million and $(1.3) million, respectively, being reclassified on the consolidated statements of operations.

Use of Estimates

GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities as of the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expenses during the reported periods. Changes in the economic environment, financial markets and any other parameters used in determining these estimates could cause actual results to differ materially. In the opinion of management, the interim data includes all adjustments, of a normal and recurring nature, necessary for a fair statement of the results for the periods presented. The current period's results of operations will not necessarily be indicative of results that ultimately may be achieved for the entire year or any subsequent interim periods.

(Unaudited)

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company, the OP and its subsidiaries. All intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. In determining whether the Company has a controlling financial interest in a joint venture and the requirement to consolidate the accounts of that entity, management considers factors such as ownership interest, authority to make decisions and contractual and substantive participating rights of the other partners or members, as well as whether the entity is a variable interest entity ("VIE") for which the Company is the primary beneficiary.

The Company has determined the OP is a VIE of which the Company is the primary beneficiary. Substantially all of the Company's assets and liabilities are held by the OP.

The Company consolidates all entities that it controls through either majority ownership or voting rights. In addition, the Company consolidates all VIEs of which the Company is considered the primary beneficiary. VIEs are entities in which equity investors (i) do not have the characteristics of a controlling financial interest and/or (ii) do not have sufficient equity at risk for the entity to finance its activities without additional subordinated financial support from other parties. The entity that consolidates a VIE is its primary beneficiary and is generally the entity with (i) the power to direct the activities that most significantly affect the VIE's economic performance and (ii) the right to receive benefits from the VIE or the obligation to absorb losses of the VIE that could be significant to the VIE. Non-controlling interest represents the equity of consolidated joint ventures that are not owned by the Company.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of collateralized loan obligations ("CLOs") issued and securitized by wholly owned subsidiaries of the Company. The Company has determined the CLOs are VIEs of which the Company's subsidiary is the primary beneficiary. The assets and liabilities of the CLOs are consolidated in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 810, Consolidation.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash consists of amounts deposited with high quality financial institutions. These deposits are guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Company up to an insurance limit. Cash equivalents include short-term, liquid investments in money market funds with original maturities of 90 days or less when purchased. Cash and cash equivalent balances may, at a limited number of banks and financial institutions, exceed insurable amounts. The Company believes it mitigates risk by investing in or through major financial institutions and primarily in funds that are currently U.S. federal government insured up to applicable account limits.

Restricted Cash

Restricted cash primarily consists of cash pledged as margin on repurchase agreements and derivative transactions, the duration of which generally matches the duration of the related repurchase agreements or derivative transactions, and cash reserves that are a requirement of Fannie Mae Delegated Underwriting and Servicing (DUS) program.

Investment Securities, held to maturity

Investment securities, held to maturity, consist of U.S. Treasury securities. These investment securities are pledged as collateral to satisfy reserve requirements of the Fannie Mae DUS program. The Company classifies these debt securities as held-to-maturity ("HTM"). HTM debt securities are those debt securities in which the Company has the ability and intent to hold the security until maturity. HTM debt securities are recorded at amortized cost, adjusted for the amortization or accretion of premiums or discounts, less allowance for credit losses. The Company includes accrued interest as part of the HTM debt security amortized cost basis.

Commercial Mortgage Loans

Held for Sale, Measured at Fair Value - The fair value option provides an option to irrevocably elect fair value as an alternative measurement for selected financial assets, financial liabilities, and written loan commitments. The Company has elected to measure commercial mortgage loans held for sale in the Company's Agency and Conduit loans under the fair value option. These commercial mortgage loans are included in Commercial mortgage loans, held for sale, measured at fair value in the consolidated balance sheets. Interest income received on these loans is recorded on the accrual basis of accounting and is included in Interest income in the consolidated statements of operations. Costs to originate these investments are expensed when incurred.

For loans issued to GSE's and Agencies ("Agency Loans"), the Company also retains the rights to service the loans ("MSRs"), and receives fees for such servicing during the life of the loans, which generally last seven years or more. Gains or

FRANKLIN BSP REALTY TRUST, INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
September 30, 2025
(Unaudited)

losses on sales of mortgage loans are recognized based on the difference between the selling price and the adjusted value of the related mortgage loans sold.

Sales of Agency Loans are considered transfers of financial assets, which are accounted for as sales when control over the assets have been transferred. The criteria for control to be transferred are (1) the assets have been isolated, put presumptively beyond the reach of the Company, even in bankruptcy, (2) the transferee has the right to pledge or exchange the transferred financial assets, and (3) the Company does not maintain effective control over the transferred financial assets. The Company has determined that all loans sold have met these specific conditions.

Mortgage Servicing Rights, net

The Company originates, sells, and services multifamily, healthcare, and senior-living related loans under programs offered by government and government-sponsored enterprises. These loans are generally held for short periods and minimal interest income is earned from these activities. Instead, the Company receives origination fees when it closes the loans and sale premiums when it sells the loans. Upon sale, the Company typically retains the MSRs and earns servicing fees over the life of the loans, which often extend seven years or longer.

When the Company commits to originate a loan with a borrower and sell it to an investor, income for the related MSR is recognized as a derivative asset. The asset is recognized at fair value based on the discounted expected net cash flows associated with the servicing of the loan. Once funded, the holding period for mortgage loans originated by the Company is approximately 30 days. Gains or losses on sales of mortgage loans are recognized based on the difference between the selling price and the adjusted value of the related mortgage loans sold. Once sold, the Company retains the servicing rights and the value allocated to the associated MSR is reclassified and capitalized as an individual originated MSR ("OMSR") asset on the consolidated balance sheets. The Company utilizes the amortization method to account for MSRs, under which the MSRs are amortized over the period of net servicing income or loss. Amortization of MSRs is recorded as a reduction of Servicing revenues, net in the consolidated statements of operations.

MSRs are initially recorded at fair value and subsequently carried at amortized cost. The following assumptions were used in estimating the fair value of the capitalized MSRs:

- Discount Rate: We used discount rates ranging from 8% to 14%, representing a weighted average discount rate of 10%, based on management's best estimate of the market to determine the present value of MSRs.
- Servicing Cost: The difference between estimated future cash flows and future cost to service a loan by a market participant for the estimated life of the MSR.
- Estimated Life: Estimated MSR life is based on stated yield-maintenance or prepayment-protection terms of the underlying loans.

The fair value of MSRs from loans we originate and sell are estimated considering market prices for similar MSRs, when available, and by estimating the present value of the future net cash flows of the capitalized MSRs, net of adequate compensation for servicing. Adequate compensation is based on the market rate of similar servicing contracts.

The MSR portfolio is evaluated for impairment at each reporting period by comparing the aggregate carrying amount of the MSRs to their aggregate fair value. For purposes of impairment evaluation, the MSRs are stratified based on the predominant risk characteristics of the underlying loans, which the Company has identified as loan type, and prepayment or default behavior, which vary by Agency. If the carrying value of an MSRs strata exceeds fair value, a valuation allowance is established. The Company utilizes an independent third-party valuation expert to assist in determining the estimated fair value of our MSR portfolio on a quarterly basis.

The Company writes off MSRs related to loans that were repaid prior to their expected maturity and loans that are determined to be unrecoverable. The write-off is recorded as a direct, permanent, reduction to the carrying value of MSRs and is included as a component of Servicing revenue, net in the consolidated statements of operations.

Derivatives and Hedging Activities

In the normal course of business, the Company is exposed to the effect of interest rate changes and may undertake a strategy to limit these risks through the use of derivatives. The Company uses derivatives primarily to economically hedge against interest rates, CMBS spreads and macro market risk in order to minimize volatility. The Company may use a variety of derivative instruments that are considered conventional, including but not limited to: Treasury note futures and credit derivatives on various indices including CMBX and CDX.

FRANKLIN BSP REALTY TRUST, INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
September 30, 2025
(Unaudited)

The Company also enters into loan commitments with borrowers on loan originations whereby the interest rate on the prospective loan is determined prior to funding. In general, the Company simultaneously enters into forward sale commitments with investors in order to hedge against the interest rate exposure on loan commitments. The forward sale commitment with the investor locks in the interest rate and price for the sale of the loan. The terms of the loan commitment with the borrower and the forward sale commitment with the investor are matched with the objective of hedging interest rate risk. Loan commitments and forward sale commitments are considered derivative instruments.

The Company recognizes all derivatives on the consolidated balance sheets at fair value. The estimated fair value of loan commitments includes values attributable to loan origination fees, premiums on the sale of loans, the fair value of the MSR, and changes in fair value due to interest rate movements between the date of the rate lock and period end. The estimated fair value of forward sale commitments includes the changes in fair value due to interest rate movements between the rate lock and period end. The Company does not designate derivatives as hedges to qualify for hedge accounting for financial reporting purposes and, therefore, any net payments under, or fluctuations in the fair value of these derivatives have been recognized currently in Unrealized (gain)/loss on derivative instruments and (Gain)/loss on sales, including fee-based servicing, in the accompanying consolidated statements of operations based on the nature of the derivative.

The Company records derivative asset and liability positions on a gross basis with any collateral posted with or received from counterparties recorded separately within restricted cash in the consolidated balance sheets. Certain derivatives that the Company has entered into are subject to master netting agreements with its counterparties, allowing for netting of the same transaction, in the same currency, on the same date.

Revenue Recognition

Interest Income

Interest income is accrued based on the actual coupon rate adjusted for accretion of any purchase discounts, the amortization of any purchase premiums and the accretion of any deferred fees, in accordance with GAAP. The Company may place loans as non-performing when the loan becomes 90 days past due or there is reasonable doubt about collection. When a loan is designated as non-performing status and put on non-accrual or cost recovery status, interest is only recorded as interest income or applied against the amortized cost basis of the loan, respectively, when received. A loan may be placed back on accrual status if we determine it is probable that we will collect all payments which are contractually due.

Revenue from Real Estate Owned

Revenue from real estate owned represents income associated with the operations of commercial real estate properties, primarily base rent and reimbursements from property operating expenses. We recognize fixed rental income on a straight line basis over the non-cancelable lease term. Income for these activities is recognized when collection is reasonably assured and as the services under the arrangement have been provided.

Servicing Fees, net

Servicing fees are earned for servicing mortgage loans, including all activities related to servicing the loans, and are recognized as services are provided over the life of the related mortgage loan. Servicing fees include the net fees earned on borrower prepayment penalties, other ancillary fees, and any write-offs related to loans repaid prior to their expected maturity.

Gain on sales, including fee-based service, net

Gains on sales include loan origination fees, gain on the sale of loans, changes to the fair value of mortgage loans held for sale and derivative financial instruments attributable to the loan commitments and forward sale commitments, and other miscellaneous loan fees. Loan origination fees and gain on the sale of loans originated are recognized when the Company commits to make a loan to a borrower.

Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets

The Company typically uses independent third party valuation specialists to assist us in estimating the fair value and estimated useful lives of intangible assets.

The Company has intangible assets consisting of both finite and indefinite lived intangibles. Finite lived intangibles include above-market and below-market in-place leases, developed technology, and non-compete agreements. Indefinite lived intangibles include agency licenses.

Intangible lease assets or liabilities related to above-market and below-market in-place leases are recorded based on the present value of the difference between the contractual rent amounts and management's estimate of market rates measured over a period equal to the remaining terms of the leases, including lease renewals where applicable. Key assumptions in the

FRANKLIN BSP REALTY TRUST, INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
September 30, 2025
(Unaudited)

estimated fair values of in-place leases includes estimated direct costs to obtain the "in place" tenant, such as commissions and tenant improvements, and opportunity costs associated with lost rentals, which are calculated using the contractual amounts to be paid pursuant to the in-place leases over a market absorption period for a similar lease.

Developed technology intangible assets are recorded based on the cost the Company would incur in rebuilding the technology. Key assumptions include the costs to replace the technology plus the developer's profit and entrepreneurial incentive.

Non-compete intangible assets are recorded based on the present value of the projected revenue differences tied to such arrangement. Key assumptions in calculating the value of such intangible asset include projected revenue, the selected discount rate, and the terms of the agreement.

The Company's agency licenses are deemed to have an indefinite life due to their continuous economic value. The key assumptions in the determination of the value of the licenses include the projected revenue and servicing fees, the selected discount rate, and the time period over which revenue would be generated.

Finite lived intangibles are amortized over their estimated useful lives on a straight-line basis. Intangible assets deemed to have indefinite lives are not amortized and instead are assessed for impairment annually when events or circumstances indicate that the carrying value may be impaired.

Goodwill represents the excess cost of a business acquisition over the fair value of the net assets acquired. The Company does not amortize goodwill and tests for impairment at least annually. The Company tests for impairment by assessing qualitative factors to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of the Company is less than its carrying amount. Such qualitative factors include macroeconomic conditions, industry and market conditions, cost factors, overall financial performance of the Company and other relevant Company specific factors. Key assumptions considered in assessing overall financial performance include, but are not limited to rate lock volume, forecasted or actual EBITDA, forecasted or actual revenue, net cash generated and growth in MSR value.

If the Company determines it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount, then the Company will perform the goodwill impairment test. A goodwill impairment will be recorded if the carrying value of the Company exceeds its fair value as a result of the goodwill impairment test.

Allowance for Loss Sharing

Mortgage loans originated and sold by the Company to Fannie Mae under the Fannie Mae DUS program are subject to the terms and conditions of the Loss Sharing Addendum to the Multifamily Selling and Servicing Agreement, effective August 1, 2019 and amended effective June 15, 2021. Under the Loss Sharing Agreement, the Company is responsible for absorbing certain losses incurred by Fannie Mae with respect to loans originated under the DUS program. The compensation for this risk of loss is a component of servicing fees on the loan.

When a loan is sold under the Fannie Mae DUS program, the Company undertakes an obligation to partially guarantee the performance of the loan. On the date the Company commits to make a loan to a borrower, a liability for the current expected credit losses related to the loan is recognized in Allowance for loss sharing on the consolidated balance sheets.

The estimate of expected credit losses is determined based on detailed loan-specific characteristics, including loan-to-value (LTV) ratio, vintage year, loan term, property type, occupancy, and geographic location. The evaluation also considers the financial performance of the borrower, expected payments of principal and interest, as well as qualitative factors, utilizing both internal and external information. This approach incorporates past events, current conditions, and forward-looking information through the use of projected macroeconomic scenarios over reasonable and supportable forecasts.

Subsequent changes (favorable and unfavorable) in expected credit losses each period are recognized immediately in (Provision)/benefit for credit losses in the consolidated statement of operations as allowance for loss sharing expense or a reversal of provision for loss sharing.

Mortgage Loan Repurchase

When a loan is sold under the Fannie Mae DUS and Ginnie Mae programs, the Company retains an option to repurchase individual delinquent loans that meet certain criteria. Loans are considered delinquent when a payment has been missed for four consecutive months. At the Company's option, and without Fannie Mae's or Ginnie Mae's prior authorization, the Company may repurchase the delinquent loan for an amount equal to 100% of the remaining unpaid principal balance of the loan plus applicable interest and the Company's share of delinquency resolution costs. Under FASB ASC Topic 860, Transfers and Servicing, ("ASC 860"), once the Company has the unilateral ability to repurchase the delinquent loan and that ability has a more-than-trivial benefit to the Company, the Company is deemed to have regained effective control of the loan and is required

FRANKLIN BSP REALTY TRUST, INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
September 30, 2025
(Unaudited)

to recognize the loan on its consolidated balance sheets with an offsetting liability, regardless of the Company's intent to repurchase the loan. Historically the Company has not elected the option to repurchase eligible loans.

At September 30, 2025, there were two delinquent Ginnie Mae loans with an unpaid principal balance of $13.1 million eligible to be repurchased by the Company. During the year ended September 30, 2025, the Company did not exercise its option to repurchase any delinquent loans and it is not probable that the Company will be required to repurchase these delinquent loans. Loans meeting the criteria for the repurchase option are included in the Loan repurchase option asset with an offsetting Loan repurchase option liability on the consolidated balance sheets.

Servicing Fee Payable

The Company provides additional payments to certain employees, both current and former, and third-party correspondents by providing them with a percentage of the servicing fee revenue that is earned by the Company, which is initially recorded as a liability when the Company commits to make a loan to a borrower ("the servicing fee payable"). The initial fair value of the liability represents the expected net cash payments over the life of the related mortgage loan that are discounted at a rate that reflects the credit and liquidity risk of the related MSR. The Company incurs an expense over the life of each loan as long as the related loan is performing. If a particular loan is not performing, the recipient will not receive any additional compensation on that loan, and if a loss sharing event is triggered, the recipient will not receive any portion of the additional compensation on other loans.

The servicing fee payable to current employees and former employees is included within Accrued compensation on the consolidated balance sheet. The initial fair value of the related expense and the changes in the fair value of the servicing fee payable over the life of the related mortgage loan for current employees is included within Compensation and benefits, on a net basis, in the consolidated statement of operations in the period in which the change occurs. The changes in the fair value of the servicing fee payable over the life of the related mortgage loan for former employees is included within Professional fees, on a net basis, in the consolidated statement of operations in the period in which the change occurs.

Deferred Compensation Plans (Nonqualified)

The nonqualified deferred compensation plans are liability-classified cash based plans that are intended to promote the interest of the Company by creating incentives for employees in the form of long term compensation awards. Awards may be granted annually and generally vest over a period of four years. Certain employees participate in the Deferred Cash Plan ("DC Plan") and the Profit Incentive Plan provided by the Company.

All long-term incentive ("LTI") plans attribute expected future benefits to a period of service greater than one year. The Company accrues the cost of such awards issued under the LTI plans over the period of the employee's service in a systematic and rational manner such that at the end of the period the aggregate amount accrued equals the value of the benefits expected to be provided to the employee in exchange for the employee's service to that date.

Operating Leases

The Company's lease portfolio primarily contains real estate operating leases, which are accounted for in accordance with Topic 842, Leases. The Company determines if an arrangement is or contains a lease at contract inception. When a lease exists, The Company records a right-of-use ("ROU") asset and lease liability, which are initially recognized based on the discounted future lease payments over the term of the lease. Variable lease payments are not included in the measurement of ROU assets and lease liabilities.

As the rate implicit in the Company's leases is not easily determinable, the Company's applicable incremental borrowing rate is used in calculating the present value of the sum of the lease payments. Tenant improvement allowances are netted against the associated ROU asset and accreted over the leasehold period.

Our leases generally include options to extend or terminate use of the underlying assets. These options are included in the lease term used to determine ROU assets and lease liability when The Company is reasonably certain they will be exercised.

The Company elected the practical expedient related to lease and non-lease components, which allows a lessee to not separate non-lease from lease components and instead account for consideration paid in a contract as a single lease component.

Operating lease expense is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term with the expense recorded in Other expenses the consolidated statements of operations.

In March 2024, the FASB issued ASU, 2024-01 “Compensation — Stock Compensation (Topic 718): Scope Application of Profits Interest and Similar Awards,” or ASU 2024-01. ASU 2024-01 improves clarity and operability without changing the guidance. In March 2024, the FASB issued ASU 2024-02 “Codification Improvements — Amendments to Remove References to the Concepts Statements,” or ASU 2024-02. ASU 2024-02 amended certain definitions in the FASB guidance. ASU 2024-02 is effective on a prospective basis, with the option for retrospective application, for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2024 and early adoption is permitted. We do not expect the adoption of ASU 2024-02 to have a material impact on our consolidated financial statements.

Note 3 - Business Combinations

Acquisition of NewPoint

On July 1, 2025 (the “Acquisition Date”), the Company completed the acquisition ("the Transaction") of NewPoint Holdings JV LLC (“NewPoint”), a commercial real estate finance company offering lending solutions nationwide to investors in multifamily, affordable housing, seniors housing, healthcare, and manufactured housing properties.

The Transaction is expected to expand the Company's presence in the multifamily lending sector, with the opportunity to enhance its diversified mortgage finance platform and capitalize on agency capabilities.

The Company purchased 100% of the outstanding equity interests of NewPoint for an aggregate purchase price of $427.8 million, comprised of $336.9 million in cash and $90.9 million of equity, in the form of 8,385,951 Class A units of the OP ("OP Units") issued as consideration. The OP Units were valued based on the closing market price of the Company's common shares on the acquisition date. The Company will operate the acquired business through a taxable REIT subsidiary.

The Company accounted for the Transaction as a business combination under the acquisition method of accounting, which requires allocation of the total consideration transferred to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on their fair values as of the Acquisition Date, with the excess of the consideration transferred over those fair values recorded as goodwill. Determining the fair value of the assets acquired requires significant judgments, assumptions, and estimates about future events, which the Company believes are reasonable. Use of different estimates and judgments could produce materially different results. The Company may refine such estimates and adjust the assets acquired and liabilities assumed over the measurement period, which will not exceed one year from the Acquisition Date. The following is a preliminary purchase price allocation, which is subject to change as the Company finalizes its analysis over certain items such as intangible assets, MSRs, and other items.

The allocation of the purchase consideration, subject to future measurement period adjustments, is as follows (dollars in thousands):

The purchase price exceeded the estimated fair value of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed and, as a result of the purchase allocation, the Company recorded goodwill of $90.8 million, which has been allocated to the Agency segment. The goodwill recognized is attributable primarily to anticipated growth opportunities and synergies resulting from the Transaction, which provides the Company with an expanded presence in the multifamily sector and the ability to originate and service agency mortgage loans. The amount of goodwill expected to be deductible for tax purposes is approximately $61.7 million.

The fair value of the identifiable tangible assets and liabilities acquired in the Transaction approximated their carrying values at the Acquisition Date. The Company used independent third-party valuation specialists to assist in determining the fair value of certain intangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed, which are classified as Level III. Provisional estimates of fair value are established at the time of the acquisition. There are significant estimates used in determining the fair values of certain intangible assets acquired, which consist of mortgage servicing rights, licenses, developed technology, and non-compete agreements.

Mortgage servicing rights: When a mortgage loan is sold, the Company retains the right to service the loan and recognizes the MSR at fair value. The initial fair value represents expected net cash flows from servicing, borrower prepayment penalties, interest earnings on escrows, interim cash balances, delinquency rates, late charges and ancillary fees that are discounted at a rate that reflects the credit and liquidity risk of the MSR over the estimated life of the underlying loan. After initial recognition, the MSRs will be amortized using the amortization method.

Licenses: The fair value of the licenses were estimated using a discounted cash flow method, which involves projecting revenue and servicing fees associated with the license, while accounting for related expenses. The significant unobservable input used to discount the future cash flows to present value is the discount rate of 11.5%. These licenses are considered to have indefinite useful lives, reflecting their continuous economic value. Key assumptions are drawn from management's projections and legal guidance.

Developed technology: The fair value was estimated based on a replacement cost method of the cost approach, which estimates the cost the Company would incur in rebuilding the technology. Under this method, fair value is equal to the replacement cost of the technology plus developer's profit and entrepreneurial incentive, which are the key assumptions embedded into the valuation. The technology is amortized over five years based upon the estimated economic benefits received.

Non-compete agreements: The fair value of the non-compete agreements were estimated using a discounted cash flow method, which calculates the present value of projected revenue differences attributable to the agreement, adjusted for operating expenses. The significant unobservable input used to discount the future cash flows to present value is the discount rate of 11.5%. Key assumptions are based on management input and the terms of the non-compete agreement. The agreements are amortized over a period of nine to 12 months.

The estimates above directly impact the amount of identified intangible assets recognized and the related amortization expenses in future periods. Intangible assets acquired had a weighted average useful economic life of 2.7 years. As of September 30, 2025, aggregate intangible assets relating to the Transaction of $80.1 million were recorded in Intangible assets, net on the consolidated balance sheets. The Company may record certain measurement period adjustments, which will be made in the period in which the amounts are determined. The current period income effect of such adjustments will be calculated as if the adjustments had been completed as of the Acquisition Date.

The Company recognized acquisition-related expenses of $2.3 million and $3.7 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025, respectively, in Other Expenses and $1.7 million and $5.1 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025, respectively, in Professional Fees on the consolidated statement of operations.

The Company's consolidated financial statements for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025 include the operations of NewPoint from the Acquisition Date. The unaudited pro forma financial information is based on historical information of the Company and NewPoint, along with certain material, non-recurring pro forma adjustments. The material, non-recurring pro forma adjustments primarily consist of (i) incremental amortization expense based on the preliminary fair values of the intangible assets acquired; (ii) recognition of non-controlling interest to reflect the reclassification of the OP units; (iii) a change in the valuation methodology of mortgaging servicing rights from fair value to the amortization method; (iv) increased provision for credit loss expense due to revised loss estimation methodology, (v) non-recurring transaction costs; and (vi) income tax impact of the aforementioned pro forma adjustments.

Specific Allowance for Credit Losses

The Company has elected to apply a practical expedient for collateral dependent assets in which the allowance for credit losses is calculated as the difference between the estimated fair value of the underlying collateral, less estimated cost to sell, and the amortized cost basis of the loan. As such, these loans receivable are measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis using significant unobservable inputs and are classified as Level 3 assets in the fair value hierarchy. The fair value of the underlying collateral is determined using the market approach, the income approach, or a combination thereof. The significant unobservable input used for the income approach is the exit capitalization rate assumptions. The significant unobservable input used for the market approach is the estimated fair value less cost to sell based on a negotiated price from an anticipated buyer.

In November 2021, the Company originated a first mortgage loan with a commitment of $66.7 million secured by a multifamily property in Texas. The loan was identified by management as non-performing and placed on cost recovery status, with an amortized cost of $66.7 million as of December 31, 2024. The Company recorded a specific allowance for credit losses of $3.2 million on this loan for the year ended December 31, 2024. In January 2025, the Company, through foreclosure, acquired the property which was subsequently sold in February 2025. See Note 5 - Real Estate Owned for additional details. The Company charged off the specific allowance for credit losses at the time of the foreclosure.

In March 2021, the Company originated a first mortgage loan with a commitment of $48.5 million secured by an office property in Colorado. The loan was identified by management as non-performing and placed on cost recovery status, with an amortized cost of $43.7 million as of December 31, 2024. The Company recorded a specific allowance for credit losses of $26.7 million on this loan for the year ended December 31, 2024. In February 2025, the Company, through deed-in-lieu of foreclosure, acquired the property which is recorded in Real estate owned, held for sale in the consolidated balance sheets. See Note 5 - Real Estate Owned for additional details. The Company charged off the specific allowance for credit losses at the time of the deed-in-lieu of foreclosure.

In May 2022, the Company originated a first mortgage loan with a commitment of $42.3 million secured by a multifamily property in Texas. The loan was identified by management as non-performing and placed on non-accrual status, with an amortized cost of $36.8 million as of March 31, 2025. The Company recorded a specific allowance for credit losses of $0.5 million on this loan as of March 31, 2025, and an additional $1.4 million specific allowance for credit losses in the second quarter as a result of the property's decrease in fair market value. In April 2025, the Company acquired the property through foreclosure, which is recorded in Real estate owned, held for sale in the consolidated balance sheets. See Note 5 - Real Estate Owned for additional details. The Company charged off the specific allowance for credit losses at the time of the foreclosure.

In December 2021, the Company originated a first mortgage loan with a commitment of $23.0 million secured by a multifamily property in Pennsylvania. The loan was identified by management as non-performing and placed on non-accrual status, with an amortized cost of $22.0 million as of September 30, 2025. The Company recorded a specific allowance for credit losses of $2.3 million on this loan as of September 30, 2025.

General Allowance for Credit Losses

The Company recorded a total decrease in its general allowance for credit losses during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025 of $1.5 million and $5.7 million, respectively. The primary driver for the lower reserve balance is due to a decrease in the size of the overall portfolio of commercial mortgage loans, held for investment for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025. Changes in the provision for credit losses for the Company's financial instruments are recorded in (Provision)/benefit for credit losses in the consolidated statements of operations with a corresponding offset to the financial instrument's amortized cost recorded in the consolidated balance sheet, or as a component of Accounts payable and accrued expenses for unfunded loan commitments.

<sup>(3)</sup> On March 5, 2021, the Financial Conduct Authority of the U.K. (the "FCA") announced that LIBOR tenors, relevant to 2021-FL6 Issuer and 2021-FL7 Issuer, would cease to be published or no longer be representative after June 30, 2023. The Alternative Reference Rates Committee (the "ARRC") interpreted this announcement to constitute a benchmark transition event. The benchmark index of 1M LIBOR interest rate converted from LIBOR to compounded SOFR, plus a benchmark adjustment of 11.448 basis points with a lookback period equal to the number of calendar days in the applicable interest accrual period plus two SOFR business days, conforming with the indenture agreement and recommendations from the ARRC. Compounded SOFR for any interest accrual period shall be the "30-Day Average SOFR" as published by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York on each benchmark determination date. On July 13, 2023, the Company converted the indices for 2021-FL6 Issuer and 2021-FL7 Issuer to 1M Term SOFR + 11.448 basis points and the applicable spreads remain unchanged.

The below table reflects the total assets and liabilities of the Company's outstanding CLOs. The CLOs are considered VIEs and are consolidated into the Company's consolidated financial statements as of September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024 as the Company is the primary beneficiary of the VIE. The Company is the primary beneficiary of the CLOs because (i) the Company has the power to direct the activities that most significantly affect the VIE's economic performance and (ii) the right to receive benefits from the VIEs or the obligation to absorb losses of the VIEs that could be significant to the VIE. The VIEs are non-recourse to the Company.

Note 13 - Allowance for Loss Sharing

The Company has risk-sharing obligations on substantially all loans originated under the Fannie Mae DUS program. Servicing fees for risk-sharing loans include compensation for the risk-sharing obligations and are larger than the servicing fees received for loans with no risk-sharing obligations.

When a loan is sold under the Fannie Mae DUS program, the Company undertakes an obligation to partially guarantee the performance of the loan. A liability is recognized for the fair value of the guarantee obligation undertaken for the non-contingent aspect of the guarantee and is removed only upon either the expiration or settlement of the guarantee. At September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024, we had $1.6 million and $0, respectively, of guarantee obligations included in the allowance for loss-sharing obligations.

In addition to and separately from the fair value of the guarantee, the Company estimates an allowance for loss-sharing under CECL over the contractual period in which we are exposed to credit risk. The general reserve related to loss-sharing was based on a collective pooling basis with similar risk characteristics, a reasonable and supportable forecast and a reversion period based on our average historical losses through the remaining contractual term of the portfolio. In instances where payment under the loss-sharing obligations of a loan is determined to be probable and estimable (as the loan is probable of, or is, in foreclosure), we record a liability for the estimated loss-sharing specific reserve. At September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024, our allowance for loss-sharing obligations related to the specific reserve was $13.4 million and $0, respectively.

At September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024, our allowance for loss-sharing obligations, associated with expected losses under CECL, was $7.6 million and $0, respectively, and represented 0.11% and 0%, respectively, of our Fannie Mae servicing portfolio. During the three months ended September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024, we recorded a decrease in CECL reserves of $2.7 million and $0, respectively.

At September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024, the unpaid principal balance outstanding of loans sold with loss sharing under the DUS program was approximately $7.2 billion and $0, respectively. The Company's internal credit risk rating process is used to classify loans and commitments according to the degree of credit risk associated with the ability of the borrower to repay. If payment is required under this program, the Company would not have a contractual interest in the collateral underlying the commercial mortgage loan on which the loss occurred, although the value of the collateral is taken into account in determining the Company's share of such losses.

A summary of the Company's allowance for loss sharing for the for the nine months ended September 30, 2025 is as follows (dollars in thousands):

|                                      | General Reserve | Specific Reserve | Total     |

| Balance at September 30, 2025 | $ 9,173        | $ 13,382        | $ 22,555 |

As of September 30, 2025, the maximum quantifiable allowance for loss sharing associated with the Company's guarantees under the Fannie Mae DUS agreement and the Loss Sharing Agreement was $1.1 billion from a total recourse at risk pool of $7.2 billion. The maximum quantifiable allowance for loss sharing is not representative of the actual loss the Company would incur. The Company would be liable for this amount only if all of the loans it services for Fannie Mae, for which the Company retains some risk of loss, were to default and all of the collateral underlying these loans was determined to be without value at the time of settlement.

For U.S. Treasury securities classified as HTM, the Company does not record an allowance for credit losses as the expectation of nonpayment of the amortized cost basis, based on historical losses, adjusted for current conditions and reasonable and supportable forecasts, is zero.

Note 14 - Earnings Per Share

The Company uses the two-class method in calculating basic and diluted earnings per share. Net income/(loss) is allocated between our common stock and other participating securities based on their participation rights. Diluted net income per share has been computed using the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding and other dilutive securities. The following table presents a reconciliation of the numerators and denominators of the basic and diluted earnings per share computations and the calculation of basic and diluted earnings per share for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025 and 2024 (in thousands, except share and per share data):

Dividend Reinvestment and Direct Stock Purchase Plan

The Company has adopted a dividend reinvestment and direct stock purchase plan ("DRIP") under which we registered and reserved for issuance, in the aggregate, up to 63,000,000 shares of common stock. Under the dividend reinvestment component of this plan, the Company's common stockholders can designate all or a portion of their cash dividends to be reinvested in additional shares of common stock (which shares, at the Company's option, are either issued directly from the Company or purchased by the administrator on the open market). The direct stock purchase component allows stockholders, subject to the Company's approval, to purchase shares of common stock directly from us. During the three months ended September 30, 2025 and 2024, no shares common stock were issued by the Company, and 39,570 and 40,165 shares of common stock, respectively, were purchased in the open market by the DRIP administrator and allocated to DRIP participants under the dividend reinvestment component of the DRIP. The Company executes lease arrangements for all of its office space in the normal course of business. All such lease arrangements are accounted for as operating leases. The Company initially recognizes a lease liability for the obligation to make lease payments and a right-of-use ("ROU") asset for the right to use the underlying asset for the lease term. The lease liability is measured at the present value of the lease payments over the lease term. The ROU asset is measured at the lease liability amount, adjusted for lease prepayments, accrued rent, lease incentives received, and the lessee's initial direct costs.

These operating leases do not provide an implicit discount rate; therefore, the Company uses its incremental borrowing rate to calculate lease liabilities. The Company's lease agreements often include options to extend or terminate the lease. Lease costs are recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease, which includes options to extend when it is reasonably certain that such options will be exercised and the Company knows what the lease payments will be during the optional periods.

Litigation and Regulatory Proceedings

However, the Company is involved in routine litigation arising in the ordinary course of business, none of which the Company believes, individually or in the aggregate, will have a material impact on the Company's financial condition, operating results or cash flows. At September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024, total escrow and reserve balances were approximately $930 million and $0, respectively, none of which are included in our consolidated balance sheets. These escrows are maintained in separate accounts at several federally insured depository institutions, which may exceed FDIC insured limits. We earn interest income and placement fees on the total escrow deposits, which is generally based on a market rate of interest negotiated with the financial institutions that hold the escrow deposits. Interest earned on total escrows, net of interest paid to the borrower, is included as a component of servicing revenue, net in the consolidated statements of income as noted in the table above.

Note 19 - Fair Value of Financial Instruments

GAAP establishes a hierarchy of valuation techniques based on the observability of inputs used in measuring financial instruments at fair values. GAAP establishes market-based or observable inputs as the preferred source of values, followed by valuation models using management assumptions in the absence of market inputs. The three levels of the hierarchy are described below:

- Level I - Inputs are unadjusted, quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities at the measurement date.
- Level II - Inputs (other than quoted prices included in Level I) are either directly or indirectly observable for the asset or liability through correlation with market data at the measurement date and for the duration of the instrument's anticipated life.
- Level III - Unobservable inputs that reflect the entity's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in the pricing of the asset or liability and are consequently not based on market activity, but rather through particular valuation techniques.

The determination of where an asset or liability falls in the above hierarchy requires significant judgment and factors specific to the asset or liability. In instances where the determination of the fair value measurement is based on inputs from different levels of the fair value hierarchy, the level in the fair value hierarchy within which the entire fair value measurement falls is based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety. The Company evaluates its hierarchy disclosures each quarter and depending on various factors, it is possible that an asset or liability may be classified differently from quarter to quarter.

The Company has implemented valuation control processes to validate the fair value of the Company's financial instruments measured at fair value including those derived from pricing models. These control processes are designed to assure that the values used for financial reporting are based on observable inputs wherever possible. In the event that observable inputs are not available, the control processes are designed to assure that the valuation approach utilized is appropriate and consistently applied and the assumptions are reasonable.

Financial Instruments Measured at Fair Value on a Recurring Basis

CMBS bonds, recorded in Real estate securities, available for sale, measured at fair value in the consolidated balance sheets are valued utilizing both observable and unobservable market inputs. These factors include projected future cash flows, ratings, subordination levels, vintage, remaining lives, credit issues, and recent trades of similar real estate securities. Depending upon the significance of the fair value inputs used in determining these fair values, these real estate securities are classified in either Level II or Level III of the fair value hierarchy. The Company obtains third party pricing for determining the fair value of each CMBS investment, resulting in a Level II classification.

Commercial mortgage loans, held for sale, measured at fair value in the Company's TRS are initially recorded at transaction price, which are considered to be the best initial estimate of fair value. The Company engages the services of a third party independent valuation firm to determine fair value of certain investments held by the Company. Fair value is determined using a discounted cash flow model that primarily considers changes in interest rates and credit spreads, weighted average life and current performance of the underlying collateral. Commercial mortgage loans, held for sale, measured at fair value that are originated in the last month of the reporting period are held and marked to the transaction price. The Company classified the commercial mortgage loans, held for sale, measured at fair value as Level III.

Derivative instruments, measured at fair value

Treasury note futures trade on the Chicago Board of Trade ("CBOT") and are made up of contracts of a variety of recently issued 5-year and 10-year U.S. Treasury notes. The future contracts are liquid and are centrally cleared through the CBOT and are valued using market prices. Treasury note futures are categorized as Level I.

Credit default swaps, interest rate swaps and options can be traded over the counter (“OTC”) or on an exchange. Exchange-traded derivatives are generally valued using market prices while OTC derivative transaction valuations are derived using pricing models that are widely accepted by marketplace participants. The pricing models take into account multiple inputs including specific contract terms, interest rate yield curves, interest rates, credit curves, recovery rates, and/or current credit spreads obtained from counterparties and other market participants. Most inputs into the models are not subjective as they are observable in the marketplace or set per the contract. The valuation is primarily determined by the difference between the contract spread and the current market spread. The contract spread (or rate) is generally fixed and the market spread is determined by the credit risk of the underlying debt or reference entity. If the underlying indices are liquid and the OTC market for the current spread is active, the derivatives are categorized in Level II of the fair value hierarchy. If the underlying indices are illiquid and the OTC market for the current spread is not active, the derivatives are categorized in Level III of the fair value hierarchy. The Company's option contracts are exchange-traded, and therefore categorized as Level I. The Company classified its credit default swaps as Level II.

Loan commitments and forward sale commitments in the Company's TRS are initially recorded at transaction price, which are considered to be the best initial estimate of fair value. The Company engages the services of a third party independent valuation firm to determine fair value of certain investments held by the Company. Fair value is determined using a discounted cash flow model that primarily considers changes in interest rates and credit spreads, weighted average life and current performance of the underlying commitment collateral. Loan commitments and forward sale commitments that are entered in the last month of the reporting period are held and marked to the transactions price. The Company classified the loan commitments and forward sale commitments as Level III.

A review of the fair value hierarchy classification is conducted on a quarterly basis. Changes in the type of inputs may result in a reclassification for certain assets or liabilities. The Company's policy with respect to transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy is to recognize transfers into and out of each level as of the beginning of the reporting period. There were no material transfers between levels within the fair value hierarchy during the periods ended September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024.

The following table presents the Company's financial instruments carried at fair value on a recurring basis in the consolidated balance sheets by its level in the fair value hierarchy as of September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024 (dollars in thousands).

<sup>(1)</sup> There were no transfers in or out of Level III as of December 31, 2024.

The fair value of cash and cash equivalents and restricted cash are measured using observable quoted market prices, or Level I inputs and their carrying value approximate their fair value. The fair value of borrowings under repurchase agreements approximate their carrying value on the consolidated balance sheets due to their short-term nature and are measured using Level III inputs.

Financial Instruments Measured at Fair Value on a Nonrecurring Basis

Real Estate Owned, held for sale, on the consolidated balance sheets are valued at fair value on a non-recurring basis in accordance with ASC 820 and are classified as Level III investments. At the time of acquisition, we determined the fair value of the net real estate assets, using either the market approach, the income approach, or a combination thereof.

The Company determined the fair value of its seven multifamily properties, one office property and the remaining two retail properties in the Walgreens Portfolio, obtained through foreclosure or deed-in-lieu of foreclosure, based on a combination of the market approach and the income approach.

The significant unobservable input used for the income approach is the exit capitalization rate assumptions, which ranged from 5.00% - 9.50%. The significant unobservable input used for the market approach is the estimated fair value less cost to sell based on a negotiated price from an anticipated buyer.

As of September 30, 2025, the Company's Real estate owned, held for sale assets and liabilities, had a fair value of $212.4 million, net, that represented the remaining two retail properties in the Walgreens Portfolio, seven multifamily properties and one office property. As of December 31, 2024, the Company's real estate owned, held for sale assets and liabilities, had a fair value of $221.6 million, net, representing the remaining four retail properties in the Walgreens Portfolio and eight multifamily properties.

Mortgage servicing rights, net on the consolidated balance sheets are valued at fair value at inception, and thereafter on a non-recurring basis and are carried at the lower of amortized costs or fair value. That is, the instruments are not measured at fair value on an ongoing basis but are subject to fair value measurement when there is evidence of impairment and for disclosure purposes. The Company's MSRs do not trade in an active, open market with readily observable prices and are classified as Level III. While sales of multifamily MSRs do occur on occasion, precise terms and conditions vary with each transaction and are not readily available. Accordingly, the Company engages the services of a third party independent valuation firm to determine the estimated fair value who use discounted cash flow models that calculate the present value of estimated future net servicing income. The model considers contractually specified servicing fees, prepayment assumptions, estimated placement fee revenue from escrow deposits, and other economic factors. The Company periodically reassesses and adjusts, when necessary, the underlying inputs and assumptions that a market participant would consider in valuing MSR assets.

<sup>(2)</sup> Depending upon the significance of the fair value inputs utilized in determining these fair values, our collateralized loan obligations are classified as either Level II or Level III of the fair value hierarchy.

Repurchase agreements - commercial mortgage loans of $1.2 billion and $329.8 million as of September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024, respectively, and repurchase agreements - real estate securities of $131.7 million and $236.6 million as of September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024, respectively, are not carried at fair value and do not include accrued interest expense, which are presented in Note 12 – Debt. For these instruments, carrying value generally approximates fair value and are classified as Level III.

The fair value of the commercial mortgage loans, held for investment is estimated using a discounted cash flow analysis, based on the Advisor's experience with similar types of investments. Pledged investment securities are comprised of treasury securities for which fair value is generally estimated using discounted cash flow analysis. The Company estimates the fair value of the collateralized loan obligations using external broker quotes. The mortgage note payable was recorded at transaction proceeds, which are considered to be the best initial estimate of fair value. The fair value of the other financings is generally estimated using a discounted cash flow analysis. The fair value of the unsecured debt is based on discounted cash flows using Company estimates for market yields on similarly structured debt instruments.

Interest rate swap agreements are measured at fair value on a recurring basis primarily using Level II Inputs in accordance with ASU 2010-06, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures (Topic 820). In determining fair value estimates for swaps, the Company utilizes the standard methodology of netting the discounted future fixed cash payments and the discounted future variable cash receipts which are based on expected future interest rates derived from observable market interest rate curves. The Company also incorporates both its own nonperformance risk and its counterparties' nonperformance risk in determining fair value. In considering the effect of nonperformance risk, the Company considered the impact of netting and credit enhancements, such as collateral postings and guarantees, and has concluded that counterparty risk is not significant to the overall valuation.

Note 22 - Segment Reporting

Effective July 1, 2025, in order to better align with the manner in which the CODM reviews financial performance and allocates resources, the Company combined the real estate debt business and the real estate securities business into one reportable segment, Real Estate Debt and Other Real Estate Investments. Additionally, following the acquisition of the NewPoint business, the Company added Agency as a new reportable segment to reflect the distinct nature of its agency-related origination and servicing activities. Prior period segment results have been recast to conform to this new presentation. These changes affect only the presentation of the Company's reportable segments and have no impact on its consolidated financial position, results of operations, or cash flows.

The Company conducts its business through the following segments:

- The real estate debt business focuses on originating, acquiring and asset managing commercial real estate debt investments, including first mortgages, subordinate mortgages, mezzanine loans and participations in such loans. The business also focuses on investing in and asset managing real estate securities, historically focusing on CMBS, CMBS bonds, CDO notes, and other securities.
- The agency business focuses on originating, selling, and servicing loans under programs offered by GSE's and Agencies, such as Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac, Ginnie Mae, and HUD. Additionally, the business services external portfolios of commercial real estate financing products.
- The commercial real estate conduit business, operated through the Company's TRS, is focused on generating risk-adjusted returns by originating and subsequently selling fixed-rate commercial real estate loans into the CMBS securitization market at a profit. The TRS may also hold certain mezzanine loans that don't qualify as good REIT assets due to any potential loss from foreclosure.
- The real estate owned business represents real estate acquired by the Company through foreclosure, deed-in-lieu of foreclosure, or purchase.

The segments are based on financial information presented to the President of Commercial Real Estate and the Chief Financial Officer / Chief Operating Officer of the Company, who are determined to jointly be the Chief Operating Decision Maker ("CODM"). The CODM oversees activities and operations of the business, which includes assessing performance, liquidity, and profit or loss on each operating segment. Profit or loss on segment operations is measured by net income/(loss) included in the consolidated statements of operations. The CODM uses net income/(loss) to measure return on equity to assess the liquidity associated with equity that is allocated to each business based on the Company's investment objectives and strategies.

Overview

The Company is a Maryland corporation and has made tax elections to be treated as a real estate investment trust ("REIT") for U.S. federal income tax purposes since 2013. Substantially all of our business is conducted through the OP, a Delaware limited liability company. We are the managing member of the OP and directly or indirectly held 91% of the common units of membership interests in the OP as of September 30, 2025.

The Company's operations are organized into two business units: (i) Commercial Real Estate Financing, and (ii) Agency Business. The Commercial Real Estate Financing unit primarily focuses on originating, acquiring and asset managing commercial real estate debt investments, including first mortgage loans, subordinated mortgage loans, mezzanine loans and participations in such loans. Secondly, this unit also invests in and asset manages real estate securities, with a historical focus on commercial mortgage-backed securities ("CMBS"), commercial real estate collateralized loan obligation bonds and single asset single borrower bonds (collectively "CMBS bonds"), collateralized debt obligations ("CDOs") and other securities. Through this unit the Company also originates conduit loans which the Company intends to sell through its TRS into CMBS securitization transactions, and owns real estate that was either acquired by the Company through foreclosure, deed-in-lieu of foreclosure or that was purchased for investment.

On July 1, 2025, through a wholly owned subsidiary, we acquired NewPoint Holdings JV LLC ("NewPoint"), which now comprises our Agency Business unit. Through this unit, we originate, sell and service a range of multifamily finance products under programs offered by government-sponsored enterprises ("GSEs"), such as the Federal National Mortgage Association ("Fannie Mae") and Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation ("Freddie Mac") and by government agencies ("Agencies"), such as the Government National Mortgage Association ("Ginnie Mae") and the Federal Housing Administration, a division of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (together with Ginnie Mae, "HUD"). We retain the servicing rights and asset management responsibilities on substantially all loans we originate and sell under the GSE and HUD programs. We are an approved Fannie Mae Delegated Underwriting and Servicing ("DUS") lender, a Freddie Mac Program Plus Seller/Servicer, a Multifamily Accelerated Processing ("MAP") and Section 232 LEAN lender for HUD and a Ginnie Mae issuer. Additionally, the Company services external portfolios of commercial real estate financing products.

We are managed by the Advisor pursuant to an advisory agreement, as amended on August 18, 2021 (the "Advisory Agreement"). The Advisor manages our affairs on a day-to-day basis. The Advisor receives compensation and fees for services related to the investment and management of our assets and our operations.

The Advisor, an SEC-registered investment adviser, is a credit-focused alternative asset management firm. The Advisor manages funds for institutions and high-net-worth investors across various credit funds and complementary strategies including high yield, levered loans, private / opportunistic debt, liquid credit, structured credit and commercial real estate debt. These strategies complement each other as they all leverage the sourcing, analytical, compliance, and operational capabilities that encompass the Advisor's robust platform. The Advisor is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Franklin Resources, Inc., which together with its various subsidiaries operates as "Franklin Templeton".

As of September 30, 2025, we have 218 employees, all of which are employees of NewPoint.

Critical Accounting Estimates

Our financial statements are prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"), which requires us to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting periods. Critical accounting estimates are those that require the application of management's most difficult, subjective or complex judgments on matters that are inherently uncertain and that may change in subsequent periods. In preparing the financial statements, management has made estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting periods. In preparing the financial statements, management has utilized available information, including our past history, industry standards and the current economic environment, among other factors, in forming its estimates and judgments, giving due consideration to materiality. Actual results may differ from these estimates. In addition, other companies may utilize different estimates, which may impact the comparability of our results of operations to those of companies in similar businesses.

Accounting for business combinations requires us to recognize, separately from goodwill, the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed ("net assets") at their acquisition date fair values. Goodwill is measured as the excess of consideration transferred over the net assets acquired at their respective fair values as of the acquisition date. The estimated fair values require significant estimates and assumptions including, but not limited to, estimating projected revenues and developing appropriate discount rates. While we use our best estimates and assumptions to accurately value assets acquired and liabilities assumed at the acquisition date, our estimates are inherently uncertain and subject to refinement. During the measurement period, which may be up to one year from the acquisition date, we may record adjustments to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed with the corresponding adjustment to goodwill, based on new information obtained about the facts and circumstances that existed as of the acquisition date. Upon the conclusion of the measurement period or final determination of the values of net assets acquired, whichever comes first, any subsequent adjustments are recorded to our consolidated financial statements. Refer to Note 3 - Business Combinations for critical accounting estimates around the Company's purchase price accounting allocations.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2025, there were no other material changes to our critical accounting estimates as compared to the critical accounting estimates disclosed in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations contained in Part II, Item 7 of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2024.

NewPoint Acquisition

On July 1, 2025, we completed the acquisition of NewPoint. NewPoint is a commercial real estate finance company focused on originating and servicing agency mortgage loans. NewPoint is a multifamily originator and servicer and is approved by four government sponsored entities (Federal National Mortgage Association, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, Government National Mortgage Association and U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development). NewPoint's mortgage servicing rights ("MSRs") are held as an asset on our consolidated balance sheet. As of September 30, 2025, and as of the closing date of the acquisition, NewPoint had a total servicing portfolio of $47.3 billion and $55.4 billion, respectively. We expect that the NewPoint business will be complimentary to our historical business and will offer our traditional bridge loan borrowers the opportunity to refinance our bridge loans with agency mortgage loans.

The NewPoint acquisition does not have any impact on our arrangements with the Advisor. The President and the Chief Financial Officer / Chief Operating Officer of the Company oversee and manage the officers and employees of NewPoint serving in their respective roles as CEO and COO of that business.

As a result of the NewPoint acquisition, we treat the associated agency mortgage business, which focuses on originating, selling and servicing agency mortgage loans, as a new business segment. The agency business has and will continue to have a number of impacts on our future consolidated financial statements, including the addition of MSRs to our consolidated balance sheet, the addition of servicing income and gains on sales of originated agency mortgages, and the addition of employee expense. These changes may make it difficult to compare our financial results in future periods with our financial results from periods that preceded the acquisition. In addition, gains on sale from originated agency mortgages will largely be driven by origination volumes in the reported period. As a result, the associated gains on sale may vary significantly quarter to quarter, which may make it difficult to compare future quarter to quarter financial results.

With respect to liquidity, we expect the agency business will continue to utilize warehouse agreements as the primary form of financing. The warehouse agreements used for the agency business generally have 100% financing. We also expect that the MSRs we hold on our balance sheet will increase our ability to expand our revolving credit facilities.

We issued 8,385,951 Class A Units of FBRT OP LLC, a consolidated subsidiary of the Company, to equity holders of NewPoint in the acquisition. After 12 months from the closing date, holders of the Class A Units may elect to have the Class A Units redeemed, in which case the Company will have the option to satisfy the redemption consideration with either cash (based on the trading price of the Company's common stock) or the delivery of one share of the Company's common stock for each Class A Unit. We expect to pay quarterly per unit cash distributions to holders of Class A Units equal to the quarterly per share cash distributions we pay to holders of our common stock.

New Tax Legislation

Effective July 4, 2025, certain changes to U.S. tax law were approved that impact us and our stockholders. Among other changes, this legislation (i) permanently extended the 20% deduction for "qualified REIT dividends" for individuals and other non-corporate taxpayers under Section 199A of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code"), (ii) increased the percentage limit under the REIT asset test applicable to taxable REIT subsidiaries ("TRSs") from 20% to 25% for taxable years beginning after December 31, 2025, and (iii) increased the base on which the 30% interest deduction limit under Section 163(j) of the Code applies by excluding depreciation, amortization and depletion from the definition of "adjusted taxable income" (i.e. based on EBITDA rather than EBIT) for taxable years beginning after December 31, 2024.

<sup>(3)</sup> Fully extended maturity assumes all extension options are exercised by the borrower; provided, however, that our loans may be repaid prior to such date.

<sup>(4)</sup> Our floating rate loan agreements generally contain the contractual obligation for the borrower to maintain an interest rate cap to protect against rising interest rates. In a simple interest rate cap, the borrower pays a premium for a notional principal amount based on a capped interest rate (the “cap rate”). When the floating rate exceeds the cap rate, the borrower receives a payment from the cap counterparty equal to the difference between the floating rate and the cap rate on the same notional principal amount for a specified period of time. When interest rates rise, the value of an interest rate cap will increase, thereby reducing the borrower's exposure to rising interest rates.

<sup>(5)</sup> As of June 2023, all of our commercial mortgage loans, held for investment which had been indexed at LIBOR have been converted from LIBOR to compounded SOFR, plus a benchmark adjustment of 11.448 basis points, and the applicable spreads remain unchanged. The loans which have the SOFR adjustment are indicated with "Adj. 1M SOFR Term."

<sup>(6)</sup> Effective yield is calculated as the spread of the loan plus the greater of the applicable index or index floor.

<sup>(7)</sup> Loan-to-value percentage ("LTV") represents the ratio of the loan amount to the appraised value of the property at the time of origination. However, for predevelopment construction loans at origination, LTV is not applicable and is therefore nil.

<sup>(8)</sup> Commitment on the loan was unfunded as of September 30, 2025.

Sources of Liquidity

Our primary sources of liquidity include unrestricted cash, capacity in our collateralized loan obligations available for reinvestment, and financings available and in progress on financing lines.

Our current sources of near-term liquidity as of September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024 are set forth in the following table (dollars in millions):

|                                                   | September 30, 2025 | December 31, 2024 |

<sup>(2)</sup> Represents cash available we can invest at a market advance rate utilizing our available capacity on financing lines.

We expect to use additional debt and equity financing as a source of capital. Our board of directors currently intends to operate at a leverage level of between one to three times book value of equity. However, our board of directors may change this target without shareholder approval. We anticipate that our debt and equity financing sources and our anticipated cash generated from operations will be adequate to fund our anticipated uses of capital.

We have an effective shelf registration statement for offerings of equity securities that is not limited on the amount of securities we may issue. We also have authorized an at-the-market sales program (“ATM”) pursuant to which we may sell up to $200 million of shares of our common stock from time to time. We have not sold any shares of common stock under the ATM to date. We also may access liquidity through our dividend reinvestment and stock purchase plan (“DRIP”), which includes a direct stock purchase option.

In addition to our current mix of financing sources, we may also access additional forms of financings, including credit facilities, securitizations, public and private, secured and unsecured debt issuances by the Company or its subsidiaries, or through capital recycling initiatives whereby we sell certain assets in our portfolio and reinvest the proceeds in assets with more attractive risk-adjusted returns.

Repurchase Agreements and Revolving Credit Facilities ("Repo and Revolving Credit Facilities")

The Repo and Revolving Credit Facilities are financing sources through which the Company may pledge one or more mortgage loans to the financing entity in exchange for funds typically at an advance rate that typically range between 60% to 75% of the principal amount of the mortgage loan being pledged.

We expect to use the advances from these Repo and Revolving Credit Facilities to finance the acquisition or origination of eligible loans, including first mortgage loans, subordinated mortgage loans, mezzanine loans and participation interests therein.

The Repo and Revolving Credit Facilities generally provide that in the event of a decrease in the value of our collateral, the lenders can demand additional collateral. Should the value of our collateral decrease as a result of deteriorating credit quality, resulting margin calls may cause an adverse change in our liquidity position.

The following tables summarize our Repo and Revolving Credit Facilities and our master repurchase agreements ("MRAs") for the nine months ended September 30, 2025, 2024, and 2023, respectively (dollars in thousands):

Distributions

In order to maintain our election to qualify as a REIT, we must currently distribute, at a minimum, an amount equal to 90% of our taxable income, without regard to the deduction for distributions paid and excluding net capital gains. The Company must distribute 100% of its taxable income (including net capital gains) to avoid paying corporate U.S. federal income taxes.

Distributions on our common stock are payable when declared by our board of directors.

Dividends payable on each share of Series H convertible preferred stock ("Series H Preferred Stock") is generally equal to the quarterly dividend that would have been paid had such share of preferred stock been converted to a share of common stock, except to the extent common stock dividends have been reduced below certain specified levels. To the extent dividends on shares of preferred stock are not authorized and declared by our board of directors and paid by the Company monthly, the dividend amounts will accrue.

Holders of shares of the Company's 7.50% Series E Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Stock ("Series E Preferred Stock") are entitled to receive, when, as and if authorized by our board of directors and declared by the Company, out of funds legally available for the payment of dividends, cumulative cash dividends at the rate of 7.50% of the $25.00 per share liquidation preference per annum (equivalent to $1.875 per annum per share).

In September 2025, the Company's board of directors declared the following: (i) a third quarter 2025 dividend of $0.355 per share on the Company's common stock (equivalent to $1.42 per annum), (ii) a third quarter 2025 dividend of $106.22 per share on the Company's Series H Preferred Stock, and (iii) a third quarter 2025 dividend of $0.46875 per share on the Company's Series E Preferred Stock, all of which were paid in October 2025 to holders of record as of September 30, 2025.

Under the DRIP, the Company may elect to supply shares for reinvestment via newly issued shares of common stock or via shares of common stock purchased by the DRIP administrator on the open market. During the nine months ended September 30, 2025 and 2024, no shares were newly issued, and 120,067 and 125,350 shares of common stock were purchased, respectively, by the administrator under the dividend reinvestment component of the DRIP.

Election as a REIT

We elected to be taxed as a REIT under Sections 856 through 860 of the Internal Revenue Code commencing with the taxable year ended December 31, 2013. As a REIT, if we meet certain organizational and operational requirements and distribute at least 90% of our "REIT taxable income" (determined before the deduction of dividends paid and excluding net capital gains) to our stockholders in a year, we will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax to the extent of the income that we distribute. Even if we qualify for taxation as a REIT, we may be subject to certain state and local taxes on our income and property, and U.S. federal income and excise taxes on our undistributed income.

<sup>(1)</sup> The allocation of our unfunded loan commitments is based on the earlier of the commitment expiration date or the loan maturity date.

<sup>(2)</sup> Excludes $532.2 million of CLO notes, held by the Company, which are eliminated within the Collateralized loan obligations line of the consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2025. This reflects the contractual CLO maturity dates.

The table does not include the cash consideration the Company paid when the NewPoint acquisition was consummated on July 1, 2025. Refer to Note 16 - Commitments and Contingencies in the accompanying financial statements for more information.

In addition to its cash requirements, the Company pays a quarterly dividend and has an existing share repurchase authorization. As of September 30, 2025, the Company's quarterly cash dividend was $0.355 per share of common stock (which was paid on an as-converted basis on the Company's shares of Series H Preferred Stock), and $0.46875 per share on the Company's shares of Series E Preferred Stock. The payment of future dividends is subject to declaration by the board of directors. The Company's board of directors also has authorized a $65 million share repurchase program, of which $31.1 million remained available as of September 30, 2025. The authorization does not obligate the Company to acquire any specific number of shares.

Refer to the "NewPoint Acquisition" above with respect to the expected distributions associated with the Class A units issued in the acquisition.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

Distributable Earnings and Distributable Earnings to Common

Distributable Earnings is a non-GAAP measure, which the Company defines as GAAP net income (loss), adjusted for (i) non-cash CLO amortization acceleration and amortization over the expected useful life of the Company's CLOs, (ii) unrealized gains and losses on loans and derivatives, including CECL reserves and impairments, net of realized gains and losses, as described further below, (iii) non-cash equity compensation expense, (iv) depreciation and amortization, (v) subordinated performance fee accruals/(reversal), (vi) realized gains and losses on debt extinguishment and CLO calls, and (vii) certain other non-cash items. Further, Distributable Earnings to Common, a non-GAAP measure, presents Distributable Earnings net of (x) perpetual preferred stock dividend payments and (y) non-controlling interests in joint ventures.

As noted above, we exclude unrealized gains and losses on loans and other investments, including CECL reserves and impairments, from our calculation of Distributable Earnings and include realized gains and losses. The nature of these adjustments is described more fully in the footnotes to our reconciliation tables. GAAP loan loss reserves and any property impairment losses have been excluded from Distributable Earnings consistent with other unrealized losses pursuant to our existing definition of Distributable Earnings. We expect to only recognize such potential credit or property impairment losses in Distributable Earnings if and when such amounts are deemed nonrecoverable upon a realization event. This is generally at the time a loan is repaid, or in the case of a foreclosure or other property, when the underlying asset is sold. Amounts may also be deemed non-recoverable if, in our determination, it is nearly certain the carrying amounts will not be collected or realized. The realized loss amount reflected in Distributable Earnings will generally equal the difference between the cash received and the Distributable Earnings basis of the asset. The timing of any such loss realization in our Distributable Earnings may differ materially from the timing of the corresponding loss reserves, charge-offs or impairments in our consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP.

The Company believes that Distributable Earnings and Distributable Earnings to Common provide meaningful information to consider in addition to the disclosed GAAP results. The Company believes Distributable Earnings and Distributable Earnings to Common are useful financial metrics for existing and potential future holders of its common stock as historically, over time, Distributable Earnings to Common has been an indicator of common dividends per share. As a REIT, the Company generally must distribute annually at least 90% of its taxable income, subject to certain adjustments, and therefore believes dividends are one of the principal reasons stockholders may invest in its common stock. Further, Distributable Earnings to Common helps investors evaluate performance excluding the effects of certain transactions and GAAP adjustments that the Company does not believe are necessarily indicative of current loan portfolio performance and the Company's operations and is one of the performance metrics the Company's board of directors considers when dividends are declared.

Distributable Earnings and Distributable Earnings to Common do not represent net income (loss) and should not be considered as an alternative to GAAP net income (loss). The methodology for calculating Distributable Earnings and Distributable Earnings to Common may differ from the methodologies employed by other companies and thus may not be comparable to the Distributable Earnings reported by other companies.

The following table provides a reconciliation of GAAP net income to Distributable Earnings and Distributable Earnings to Common for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025 and 2024 (amounts in thousands, except share and per share data):

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk.

Credit Risk

Our investments are subject to a high degree of credit risk. Credit risk is the exposure to loss from loan defaults. Default rates are subject to a wide variety of factors, including, but not limited to, borrower financial condition, property performance, property management, supply/demand factors, construction trends, consumer behavior, regional economics, interest rates, the strength of the U.S. economy, and other factors beyond our control. All loans are subject to a certain probability of default. We manage credit risk through the underwriting process, acquiring our investments at the appropriate discount to face value, if any, and establishing loss assumptions. We also carefully monitor the performance of the loans, as well as external factors that may affect their value.

As a result of the NewPoint acquisition on July 1, 2025, and the operation of our agency business, we will be subject to additional credit risk as a result of our obligations under the risk sharing requirements applicable to some agency mortgage loans.

Capital Market Risk

We are exposed to risks related to the debt capital markets, and our related ability to finance our business through borrowings under repurchase obligations or other debt instruments. As a REIT, we are required to distribute a significant portion of our taxable income annually, which constrains our ability to accumulate operating cash flow and therefore requires us to utilize debt or equity capital to finance our business. We seek to mitigate these risks by monitoring the debt capital markets to inform our decisions on the amount, timing and terms of capital we raise.

Market uncertainty and volatility may cause fluctuation in market value of certain asset classes within our portfolio. We have and may continue to receive margin calls from our lenders as a result of the decline in the market value of the assets pledged by us to our lenders under our repurchase agreements and warehouse credit facilities, and if we fail to resolve such margin calls when due by payment of cash or delivery of additional collateral, the lenders may exercise remedies including demanding payment by us of our aggregate outstanding financing obligations and/or taking ownership of the loans or other assets securing the applicable obligations and liquidating them at inopportune prices.

Interest Rate Risk

Our market risk arises primarily from interest rate risk relating to interest rate fluctuations. Many factors including governmental monetary and tax policies, domestic and international economic and political considerations and other factors that are beyond our control contribute to interest rate risk. To meet our short and long-term liquidity requirements, we may borrow funds at fixed and variable rates. Our interest rate risk management objectives are to limit the impact of interest rate changes in earnings and cash flows and to lower our overall borrowing costs. To achieve these objectives, from time to time, we may enter into interest rate hedge contracts such as swaps, collars and treasury lock agreements in order to mitigate our interest rate risk with respect to various debt instruments. While hedging activities may insulate us against adverse changes in interest rates, they may also limit our ability to participate in benefits of lower interest rates with respect to our portfolio of investments with fixed interest rates. We do not have any foreign denominated investments, and thus, we are not exposed to foreign currency fluctuations.

As of September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024, our portfolio included 133 and 149 variable rate investments, respectively, based on LIBOR and SOFR (or “indexing rates”) for various terms. As of June 2023, the Company has fully transitioned all loans formerly on LIBOR indexing rates to SOFR indexing rates. The following table quantifies the potential changes in interest income net of interest expense should interest rates increase by 50 basis points or decrease by 50 or 100 basis points, assuming that our current balance sheet was to remain constant and no actions were taken to alter our existing interest rate sensitivity. The changes in the portfolio for each basis points increase/decrease is a change from the base scenario.

Our Agency Business originates, sells and services a range of multifamily finance products with Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac, and HUD. Our loans held-for-sale to these agencies are not currently exposed to interest rate risk during the loan commitment, closing and delivery process. The sale or placement of each loan to an investor is negotiated prior to closing on the loan with the borrower, and the sale or placement is generally effectuated within 60 days of closing. The coupon rate for the loan is set after we establish the interest rate with the investor.

As a result of the NewPoint acquisition on July 1, 2025, we operate an agency business that focuses on the origination and servicing of agency mortgages. The fair value of our MSRs is subject to market risk since a significant driver of the fair value of these assets will be the discount rates which are influenced by interest rates and conditional prepayment rates ("CPR"). A 100 basis point increase in the weighted average discount rate would decrease the fair value of our MSRs by $7.2 million at September 30, 2025, while a 100 basis point decrease would increase the fair value by $7.7 million.

Real Estate Risk

The market values of commercial mortgage assets are subject to volatility and may be affected adversely by a number of factors, including, but not limited to, national, regional and local economic conditions (which may be adversely affected by industry slowdowns and other factors); local real estate conditions; changes or continued weakness in specific industry segments; and demographic factors. In addition, decreases in property values reduce the value of the collateral and the potential proceeds available to a borrower to repay the underlying loans, which could also cause us to suffer losses.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures.

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

In accordance with Rules 13a-15(b) and 15d-15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), management with the participation of our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, has evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) of the Exchange Act) as of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. Based on such evaluation, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded, as of the end of such period, that our disclosure controls and procedures are effective in recording, processing, summarizing and reporting, on a timely basis, information required to be disclosed by us in our reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

During the quarter ended September 30, 2025, there were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

PART II

Item 1. Legal Proceedings.

Please refer to “Litigation and Regulatory Proceedings” in “Note 16 - Commitments and Contingencies” to the consolidated financial statements included in this report. The Company believes that those proceedings, individually or in the aggregate, will not have a material impact on the Company’s financial condition, operating results or cash flows.

Loan Fraud Lawsuits

The Company originated a loan in April 2022 secured by a portfolio of 24 properties net leased to Walgreens (the “Collateral Properties”). As described in more detail in Part I, Item 3, “Legal Proceedings” in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2022, due to the sponsor’s fraud and default under the loan the Company foreclosed on all of the Collateral Properties in 2022 and 2023. The Company has sold some of the Collateral Properties, is marketing the others for sale and is actively pursuing its civil remedies. Note that the collectability, if any, of legal judgments we have achieved to date and that we may achieve in the future is not currently determinable.

Item 1A. Risk Factors.

Our potential risks and uncertainties are presented in the section entitled “Risk Factors” contained in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2024. We are also subject to the following risks.

As a result of the NewPoint acquisition, we will be subject to additional risks, including the following:

- an adverse change in our relationships with government sponsored entities (GSE’s) associated with agency mortgages (Federal National Mortgage Association, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, Government National Mortgage Association and U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development) could adversely affect our ability to originate and service agency mortgage loans;
- we are subject to risk sharing requirements on some agency mortgage loans and associated loan losses could materially and adversely affect us;
- we are subject to liquidity requirements by the GSE’s and our failure to satisfy these requirements could materially and adversely affect our ability to operate our agency business;
- our agency business could be adversely impacted by GSE changes in prices they are willing to pay for mortgage loans, changes in loan servicing fees or changes in other GSE arrangements with us;
- terminations of servicing engagements or breaches of servicing agreements could have a material adverse effect on us;
- changes in the conservatorship of Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac or in any laws and regulations affecting the relationship between Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac and the U.S. federal government, could materially and adversely affect our agency business; and
- our agency business will generally be operated through one or more of our taxable REIT subsidiaries and therefore will be subject to the limitations generally imposed on taxable REIT subsidiaries and will be subject to corporate income tax.

Item 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds.

Purchases of Equity Securities by the Issuer and Affiliated Purchasers

The Company’s board of directors has authorized a $65 million share repurchase program that permits share repurchases at prices below the most recently reported book value per share as determined in accordance with GAAP. Purchases made under the Company’s program may be made through open market, block, and privately negotiated transactions, including Rule 10b5-1 plans, as permitted by securities laws and other legal requirements. The timing, manner, price and amount of any purchases by the Company are determined by the Company in its reasonable business judgment and consistent with the exercise of its legal duties and are subject to economic and market conditions, stock price, applicable legal requirements and other factors. The Company’s share repurchase program does not obligate the Company to acquire any particular amount of common stock. The Company’s share repurchase program will remain open until expiration or until the capital committed to the repurchase program has been exhausted, whichever is sooner. In October 2024, the Company’s board of directors extended the term of the share repurchase program to December 31, 2025. Repurchases under the share repurchase program may be suspended from time to time at the Company’s discretion without prior notice.

The Company did not repurchase shares of common stock through its share repurchase program during the three months ended September 30, 2025.

Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities

On July 1, 2025, the Company, issued 8,385,951 Class A Units of FBRT OP LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary, to NewPoint's Equity holders in connection with the closing of the NewPoint acquisition. The offer and sale of such Class A Units was made in reliance on the exemption from registration provided under Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933. Pursuant to the terms of the operating agreement, after 12 months from issuance, holders of the Class A Units may elect to have the Class A Units redeemed, in which case the Company will have the option to satisfy the redemption consideration with either cash (based on the trading price of the Company's common stock) or the delivery of one share of the Company's common stock for each Class A Unit.
