Internet Telephony Magazine Names Mitel Collaboration Solution a Lab Innovation Award Winner

9/26/2016

- Brings speed and simplicity to how people communicate and collaborate
- Purpose-built for the modern teamwork environment and a mobile-first world
- Integrates seamlessly with more than 50 leading SaaS platforms

Mitel® (Nasdaq:MITL) (TSX:MNW), a global leader in real-time business, cloud and mobile communications, announced today that Internet Telephony Magazine has presented the company with a 2016 TMC Labs Innovation Award for MiTeam, the team and social collaboration tool that supports how teams work and interact in the mobile-first workplace.

Today's teamwork environments are littered with communications across disparate applications, including email, chats, texts, phone calls and videoconferences. MiTeam simplifies and centralizes conversations, content collaboration and project management by providing a persistent workspace where groups can connect and collaborate.

A single window pane, accessible from any device, lets users initiate instant chat sessions or video meetings, share screens, annotate documents and more. MiTeam integrates with more than 50 SaaS platforms and can also extend past the company walls to include mobile employees, partners and customers. The solution is available across Mitel's cloud and premises-based offerings.

Quotes

"What we like about this solution is how well it provides numerous tools to an enterprise, allowing it to have the best of Slack, GoToMeeting, and other solutions but in a single application," TMCNet editors concluded in their announcement of the winners. "Moreover, we love the focus on mobile-first as it applies to the millennial, mobile-first generation, and MiTeam could even be used as an enticement to attract the best talent to an organization."

"Knowledge workers, information workers and services workers at businesses of all sizes, are seeking greater speed and simplicity in how they communicate and collaborate—in the office and on the go," said Jon Brinton, EVP and President, Mitel Cloud Division. "With MiTeam, they can effectively reduce organization silos, enhance productivity and increase speed to market."
