Only Brand Across Five Gartner Magic Quadrant Reports for Business Communications

- Mitel recognized as a leader in the 2015 Magic Quadrant for Corporate Telephony
- Mitel is the only brand to appear in all five Gartner Magic Quadrants for business communications

Mitel® (Nasdaq:MITL) (TSX:MNW), a global leader in real-time business, cloud and mobile communications, has been recognized as a leader in the Gartner Magic Quadrant for Corporate Telephony.

Mitel leads the market in the shift from hardware to software-based business communications, and was the first vendor to virtualize voice and deliver it as an application. According to Gartner, "The corporate telephony market is evolving from a focus on innovation in proprietary hardware to use of commodity hardware and standards-based software."

In addition to the Gartner Magic Quadrant for Corporate Telephony, Mitel was previously selected for inclusion in the Gartner Magic Quadrant for Unified Communications; the Gartner Magic Quadrant for Unified Communications for Midsize Enterprises, North America; the Gartner Magic Quadrant for Contact Center Infrastructure, Worldwide; and the Gartner Magic Quadrant for Unified Communications as a Service, Worldwide.

"Mitel's MiVoice MX-ONE platform has allowed San Diego State University (SDSU) to protect their telecom investment over the last 20+ years while moving to a platform that can provide the latest unified communications and collaboration (UCC) technologies and capabilities. The addition of Mitel's MiCollab to the MX-ONE portfolio will enable us to provide UC, mobility and video capabilities to our users beginning in 2016," said Riny Ledgerwood, director of Communications, ETS Voice Services, SDSU.

"Customers today are increasingly looking for vendors to simplify their communications solutions and to remove the seams that have previously resulted in siloed, separate and proprietary systems that have trapped them," said Rich McBee, president and CEO of Mitel. "We feel being recognized as the only vendor to appear in five critical Gartner Magic Quadrant reports is a testament to the strength of the Mitel portfolio and our unique ability to offer customers the full suite of business communications solutions they require."
